21 SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 39-06.1-03 of the North Dakota
22 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

23 5. a. A person may not appeal a finding from a district judge or magistrate that the 24 person committed the violation. If a person is aggrieved by a finding in the 25 municipal court that the person committed the violation, the person may, 26 without payment of a filing fee, appeal that finding to the district court for trial 27 anew. If, after trial in the appellate court, the person is again found to have 28 committed the violation, there may be no further appeal. Notice of appeal 29 under this subsection must be given within thirty days after a finding of 30 commission of a violation is entered by the official. Oral notice of appeal may 31 be given to the official at the time that the official adjudges that a violation has

1                   been committed. Otherwise, notice of appeal must be in writing and filed with 2                   the official, and a copy of the notice must be served upon the prosecuting
3                   attorney. An appeal taken under this subsection may not operate to stay the 4                   reporting requirement of subsection 4, nor to stay appropriate action by the 5                   licensing authority upon receipt of that report.

6                   b. The appellate court upon application by the appellant may:

7                   (1) Order a stay of any action by the licensing authority during pendency of 8                   the appeal, but not to exceed a period of one hundred twenty days;

9                   (2) Order a stay and that the appellant be issued a temporary restricted 10                  driving certificate by the licensing authority to be effective for no more 11                  than one hundred twenty days; or 12                  (3) Deny the application.

13                  An application for a stay or temporary certificate under this subdivision must 14                  be accompanied by a certified copy of the appellant's driving record, for the 15                  furnishing of which the licensing authority may charge a fee of three dollars.

16                  Any order granting a stay or a temporary certificate must be forwarded 17                  forthwith by the clerk of court to the licensing authority, which immediately
18                  shall issue a temporary certificate in accordance with the order in the manner
19                  provided by law. A court may not make a determination on an application 20                  under this subdivision without notice to the appropriate prosecuting attorney.

21                  A person who violates or exceeds the restrictions contained in any temporary 22                  restricted driving certificate issued pursuant to this subdivision is guilty of a 23                  traffic violation and must be assessed a fee of twenty dollars.

24                  c. If the person charged is found not to have committed the violation by the 25                  appellate court, the clerk of court shall report that fact to the licensing 26                  authority immediately. ¶ Unless the appropriate state's attorney consents to 27                  prosecute the appeal, if an appeal under this subsection is from a violation of 28                  a city ordinance, the city attorney for the city wherein the alleged violation
29                  occurred shall prosecute the appeal. In all other cases, the appropriate 30                  state's attorney shall prosecute the appeal.

31                  SECTION 5. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act becomes effective on January 1, 2010.
