REMARKS OF PRESIDENT DALRYMPLE

Roger Johnson is a third generation farmer from Turtle Lake, ND. He was first elected to the office of North Dakota State Agriculture Commissioner in 1996. He has served as such on the Industrial Commission, the State Water Commission, the State Board of Tax Equalization, and several other state boards.

Roger also served at the national level as President of the National Association of State Departments of Agriculture, along with other positions which he used at the state and national level in his involvement in the drafting of the 2007 Farm Bill.

Now Commissioner Johnson is leaving North Dakota for a position he feels will allow him to have an even greater impact on farmers.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Commissioner Johnson for his years of service for the state of North Dakota and to wish him well in his future endeavors as the President of the National Farmers' Union. Thank you and good luck Commissioner Johnson.
