10 ~~(Effective after July 31, 2011) Home education - Definition. For purposes of this chapter,~~
11 ~~"home education" means a program of education supervised by a child's parent, in the child's~~
12 ~~home, in accordance with the requirements of this chapter.~~

13 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
14 amended and reenacted as follows:

15 15.1-23-02. Statement of intent to supervise home education.

16 At least fourteen days before beginning home education or within fourteen days of 17 establishing a child's residence in a school district, and once each year thereafter, a parent
18 intending to supervise or supervising home education shall file a statement, reflecting that intent
19 or fact, with the superintendent of the child's school district of residence or if no superintendent
20 is employed, with the county superintendent of schools for the child's county of residence.

21 1. The statement must include:

- 22 a. The name and address of the child receiving home education;
- 23 b. The child's date of birth;
- 24 c. The child's grade level;

- 1 d. The name and address of the parent who will supervise the home education;
  - 2 e. The qualifications of the parent who will supervise the home education;
  - 3 f. Any public school courses in which the child intends to participate and the school
  - 4 district offering the courses; and
  - 5 g. Any extracurricular activities in which the child intends to participate and the
  - 6 school district or approved nonpublic school offering the activities.
- 7 2. The statement must be accompanied by a copy of the child's immunization record and
  - 8 proof of the child's identity as required by section 54-23.2-04.2.
  - 9 3. The superintendent of the child's school district of residence or if no superintendent is
  - 10 employed, the county superintendent of schools for the child's county of residence
  - 11 shall report the number of statements of intent that have been filed in accordance with
  - 12 this section to the superintendent of public instruction at the time and in the manner
  - 13 required by the superintendent of public instruction.

29 amended and reenacted as follows:

1           15.1-23-06. (Effective through July 31, 2011) Home education - Required monitoring
2 of progress.

3           A parent who does not meet the qualifications provided in section 15.1-23-03 may supervise
4 home education but must be monitored in accordance with section 15.1-23-07 for the first two
5 years. If a child receiving home education obtains a basic composite standardized achievement
6 test score below the fiftieth percentile nationally, the parent must be monitored for at least one
7 additional school year and until the child receives a test score at or above the fiftieth percentile.
8 If testing is not required by section 15.1-23-07 during the first two years of monitoring, the 9 period of monitoring may not be extended, except upon the mutual consent of the parent and 10 the monitor. If a parent completes the monitoring requirements of this section for one child, the 11 parent may not be monitored with respect to other children for whom the parent supervises
12 home education.

13           ~~(Effective after July 31, 2011) Home education -- Required monitoring of progress. A~~
14 ~~parent who has a high school diploma or a general education development certificate may~~
15 ~~supervise home education but must be monitored in accordance with section 15.1-23-07 for the~~
16 ~~first two years. If a child receiving home education obtains a basic composite standardized~~
17 ~~achievement test score below the fiftieth percentile nationally, the parent must be monitored for~~
18 ~~at least one additional school year and until the child receives a test score at or above the~~
19 ~~fiftieth percentile. If testing is not required by section 15.1-23-07 during the first two years of~~ 20 ~~monitoring, the period of monitoring may not be extended, except upon the mutual consent of~~
21 ~~the parent and the monitor. If a parent completes the monitoring requirements of this section for~~
22 ~~one child, the parent may not be monitored with respect to other children for whom the parent~~
23 ~~supervises home education.~~

24           SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is
25 amended and reenacted as follows:

26           15.1-23-08. (Effective through July 31, 2011) Test administration.

27           An individual who in accordance with this chapter administers a standardized achievement
28 test to a child receiving home education shall notify the child's school district of residence.

29           ~~(Effective after July 31, 2011) Monitoring or test administration.~~ An individual who in 30 accordance with this chapter monitors a child receiving home education or who administers a

1 standardized achievement test to a child receiving home education shall notify the child's school
2 district of residence.

3 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 15.1-23-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 amended and reenacted as follows:

5 15.1-23-17. (Effective through July 31, 2011) Home education - High school diplomas.

6 1. A child's school district of residence, an approved nonpublic high school, or the center
7 for distance education may issue a high school diploma to a child who, through home
8 education, has met the issuing entity's requirements for high school graduation
9 provided the child's parent submits to the issuing entity a description of the course
10 material covered in each high school subject, a description of the course objectives
11 and how the objectives were met, and a transcript of the child's performance in grades
12 nine through twelve.

13 2. In the alternative, a high school diploma may be issued by the child's school district of
14 residence, an approved nonpublic high school, or the center for distance education
15 provided the child, through home education, has completed at least
16 ~~twenty-one~~twenty-two units of high school coursework from the minimum required
17 curriculum offerings established by law for public and nonpublic schools and the child's 18 parent or legal guardian submits to the issuing entity a description of the course
19 material covered in each high school subject, a description of the course objectives
20 and how the objectives were met, and a transcript of the child's performance in grades
21 nine through twelve. The issuing entity may indicate on a diploma issued under this 22 subsection that the child was provided with home education. ~~Beginning with the~~
23 ~~2009-10 school year, the number of units required by this section increases to~~
24 ~~twenty-two and beginning with the 2011-12 school year, the number of units required~~
25 ~~by this section increases to twenty-four. Beginning with the 2010-11 school year, the~~
26 ~~number of units required by this section increases to twenty-two.~~

27 3. If for any reason the documentation required in subsection 1 or 2 is unavailable, the
28 entity issuing the diploma may accept any other reasonable proof that the child has
29 met the applicable requirements for high school graduation.

30 (Effective after July 31, 2011) Home education - High school diplomas.

- 1           1. ~~A child's school district of residence, an approved nonpublic high school, or the center~~
2           ~~for distance education may issue a high school diploma to a child who, through home~~
3           ~~education, has met the issuing entity's requirements for high school graduation~~
4           ~~provided the child's parent submits to the issuing entity a description of the course~~
5           ~~material covered in each high school subject, a description of the course objectives~~
6           ~~and how the objectives were met, and a transcript of the child's performance in grades~~
7           ~~nine through twelve.~~
- 8           2. ~~In the alternative, a high school diploma may be issued by the child's school district of~~
9           ~~residence, an approved nonpublic high school, or the center for distance education~~
10          ~~provided the child, through home education, has completed at least twenty one units~~
11          ~~of high school coursework from the minimum required curriculum offerings established~~
12          ~~by law for public and nonpublic schools and the child's parent or legal guardian~~
13          ~~submits to the issuing entity a description of the course material covered in each high~~
14          ~~school subject, a description of the course objectives and how the objectives were~~ 15          ~~met, and a transcript of the child's performance in grades nine through twelve. The~~
16          ~~issuing entity may indicate on a diploma issued under this subsection that the child~~
17          ~~was provided with home education. Beginning with the 2010-11 school year, the~~
18          ~~number of units required by this section increases to twenty two.~~
- 19          3. ~~If for any reason the documentation required in subsection 1 or 2 is unavailable, the~~
20          ~~entity issuing the diploma may accept any other reasonable proof that the child has~~
21          ~~met the applicable requirements for high school graduation.~~
