19 1. An insurance producer or agent of any insurance or surety company, reciprocal, 20 benevolent society, or any other insurance organization or association, however 21 constituted or entitled, may not grant, and an insured person or party or applicant for 22 insurance, either directly or indirectly, may not receive or accept, or agree to receive or 23 accept, any rebate of premium or of any part thereof, or all or any part of any 24 insurance producer's commission thereon, or any favor or advantage, or any share in

2 or inducement other than such as may be specified in the policy, except as provided in 3 an applicable filing which is in effect under the provisions of the laws regulating 4 insurance rates or except as provided under subsection 2.

5 2. Notwithstanding any other provision in this section, if the cost does not exceed an

14 1. No insurance producer may knowingly charge, demand, or receive a premium for any
