8 1. The tax commissioner may issue a domestic brewery license to the owner or operator
9 of a brewery located within this state to produce beer. A domestic brewery license may 10 be issued and renewed for an annual fee of one hundred dollars, which is in lieu of all

17 state in a manner consistent with the laws of the place of sale or delivery in total 18 quantities not in excess of twenty-five thousand gallons [94625 liters] in a calender

20 may dispense free samples of beer offered for sale. The tax commissioner may issue 21 special event permits for not more than twenty days per calendar year to a brewery 22 allowing the brewery, subject to local ordinance, to give free samples of its beer and to 23 sell its beer by the glass or in closed containers, at a designated trade show, 24 convention, festival, or a similar event approved by the tax commissioner. A brewery

3           Dakota wholesaler. For any month in which a brewery has made sales to a North
4           Dakota wholesaler, that brewery shall file a report with the tax commissioner no later

6           calendar month. When the last day of the calendar month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, 7           or legal holiday, the due date is the first working day after that day.

8           3. A brewery may obtain a retail license allowing on-premises sales of alcoholic 9           beverages at a restaurant owned by the licensee and located on property contiguous 10           with the brewery.

11           4. A domestic brewery is subject to section 5-03-06 and shall report and pay annually to 12           the tax commissioner the wholesaler taxes due on all beer sold by the licensee at 13           retail, including all beer shipped directly to consumers as set forth in sections 5-03-07
14           and 57-39.6-02. The annual wholesaler tax reports are due January fifteenth of the 15           year following the year sales were made. When the fifteenth of January falls on a 16           Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the due date is the first working day after that day.
17           The report must provide the detail and be in a format as prescribed by the tax
