15 ~~identification indicating the owner or the owner's agent and the owner or owner's agent~~
16 ~~is not known to the sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator taking~~
17 ~~custody of the animal under this chapter.~~
- 18 2. ~~"Adequate care" means normal and prudent attention to the needs of an animal,~~ 19 ~~including wholesome food, clean water, shelter, and health care, as necessary to~~ 20 ~~maintain good health in a specific species of animal.~~
- 21 3. ~~"Animal" includes every living animal except the human race.~~
- 22 4. ~~"Commissioner" means the agriculture commissioner.~~

- 1 5. ~~"Cruelty" or "torture" means any act, omission, or neglect whereby unnecessary or~~
2 ~~unjustifiable pain, suffering, or death is caused or permitted. The term does not~~
3 ~~include:~~
- 4 a. ~~Any activity that requires a license or permit under chapter 20.1-03;~~
5 b. ~~Any activity that is usual and customary practice in production agriculture;~~
6 c. ~~Any scientific research conducted at a public or private facility or laboratory by or~~
7 ~~under the direction of a qualified researcher;~~
8 d. ~~Any show, fair, competition, performance, or parade;~~
9 e. ~~A rodeo;~~
10 f. ~~A wagon or buggy ride;~~
11 g. ~~Trail or pleasure riding; or~~
12 h. ~~Any activity that involves the training or teaching of animals.~~

14 ~~has been a violation of this chapter. "neglect an animal" means to deprive an animal~~ 15 ~~that is owned by or in a person's custody or control of:~~
- 16 1. Necessary food, water, or shelter;
17 2. Adequate facilities;
18 3. Adequate sanitation; or
19 4. Other care generally accepted to be reasonable, given the species, breed, physical 20 condition, and type of animal.

21 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 36-21.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is
22 amended and reenacted as follows:

23 36-21.1-02. Overworking, mistreating, or abandoning~~Mistreatment of animals -~~
24 Prohibitions.

- 25 1. ~~No person may overdrive, overload, torture, cruelly beat, neglect, or unjustifiably~~
26 ~~injure, maim, mutilate, or kill any animal, or cruelly work any animal when unfit for~~ 27 ~~labor.~~
- 28 2. ~~No person may deprive any animal over which the person has charge or control of~~
29 ~~necessary food, water, or shelter.~~
- 30 3. ~~No person may keep any animal in any building, room, cage, or pen without adequate~~ 31 ~~care.~~

- 1 4. ~~No person may abandon any animal.~~
- 2 5. ~~A person shall reclaim an animal within forty-eight hours of the agreed-upon time for~~
- 3 ~~termination of a boarding contract and pay all charges for boarding the animal.~~
- 4 6. ~~No person may allow any maimed, sick, infirm, or disabled animal of which the person~~
- 5 ~~is the owner, or of which the person has custody, to lie in any street, road, or other~~
- 6 ~~public place for more than three hours after notice.~~
- 7 7. ~~No person may willfully instigate, or in any way further, any act of cruelty to any animal~~
- 8 ~~or animals, or any act tending to produce such cruelty.~~
- 9 8. ~~No person may cage any animal for public display purposes unless the display cage is~~
- 10 ~~constructed of solid material on three sides to protect the caged animal from the~~
- 11 ~~elements, and unless the horizontal dimension of each side of the cage is at least four~~

19 amended and reenacted as follows:

20 36-21.1-06. Exposure of animals - Authority of ~~officers~~law enforcement officer and 21 veterinarian.

22 1. ~~Any sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator may take custody of~~
23 ~~and care for any animal unjustifiably exposed to cold or inclement weather or not~~
24 ~~properly fed and watered. Any sheriff or police officer may use reasonable means to~~
25 ~~enter a motor vehicle and remove an animal that has been left in the vehicle in~~
26 ~~violation of section 36-21.1-03.1.~~

27 2. ~~A sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, or investigator may care for the animal~~
28 ~~until it is redeemed by the owner or authorized agent of the owner and when~~
29 ~~necessary may deliver the animal to another person or facility to be sheltered, cared~~
30 ~~for, and furnished suitable food and drink.~~

3. ~~If the owner or the owner's agent is known, the individual must be immediately notified. If the owner or the owner's agent is unknown, notice must be given by publication in the manner prescribed by law. The notice must inform the owner or the owner's agent that the animal may be sold, or otherwise disposed of, pursuant to court order if the animal is not redeemed within five days from the date of the notice.~~
4. ~~The sheriff, police officer, licensed veterinarian, investigator, or whoever has custody of the animal has a lien on the animal and that lien is superior to any other claim or lien, for the animal's care and keeping, the reasonable value of the food and drink furnished, and the expenses of notifying the owner or the owner's agent. If the lien is not discharged and satisfied by the owner or the owner's agent within five days after receipt of the notice, the person holding the claim may apply to the district court for an order to sell the animal and discharge the lien.~~
5. ~~Upon order of the court, the animal may be sold at a public market to pay the charges for its keeping, and the title to the animal passes by the sale.~~
6. ~~The court may award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person bringing the action to enforce the lien, arrange for the adoption of the animal, or arrange for the destruction and disposal of the animal if no market exists for the animal or if the animal is a companion animal.~~
7. ~~If the animal is sold, the lienholder is entitled to the proceeds of the sale to the extent of the lien and the remainder, if any, must be paid over to the owner or the owner's agent, if known. If the owner or the owner's agent is not known, the remainder must be deposited in the county general fund. If no purchaser is found, the animal, at the discretion of the commissioner, may be offered for adoption or disposed of consistent with the law.~~
8. ~~Before the animal is returned to its owner, the court shall determine whether the owner or the owner's agent can provide adequate care for the animal. The court has ten days within which to make this determination. The owner shall pay the cost of taking the animal into custody before the animal is released to the owner or the owner's agent.~~

A law enforcement officer or a licensed veterinarian may take custody and control of an animal if there is reasonable cause to believe that the animal has been subjected to an activity prohibited by this chapter.

1 SECTION 9. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
2 and enacted as follows:

3 Seizure of animal - Warrant - Court order.

- 4 1. A law enforcement officer may seize an animal, without a warrant or court order, if:
5 a. (1) There is reasonable cause to believe that the animal has been subjected to
6 an activity prohibited by this chapter; and
7 (2) During the time normally required to obtain a warrant or a court order, the 8 animal would be subjected to extreme suffering; or 9 b. Other exigent circumstances exist.
10 2. A law enforcement officer seizing an animal without a warrant or court order, in 11 accordance with subsection 1, shall show cause for the action thereafter. If the court
12 finds sufficient cause, the court shall issue an order ratifying the seizure of the animal.
13 If the court finds insufficient cause, the court shall order the return of the animal to its 14 owner or order any other appropriate remedy.

15 SECTION 10. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
16 created and enacted as follows:

17 Notification of owner.

- 18 1. If the owner of an animal seized under section 9 of this Act is known to the law
19 enforcement officer or to a veterinarian, the law enforcement officer or veterinarian
20 shall immediately notify the animal's owner.
21 2. If the owner of an animal seized under section 9 of this Act is not known to the law
22 enforcement officer or to a veterinarian, the law enforcement officer or veterinarian
23 shall publish a notice in the manner required by law and indicate that the animal may 24 be sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to a court order if the animal is not claimed
25 within five days from the date of the notice.

26 SECTION 11. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
27 created and enacted as follows:

28 Lien on animal.

30 under section 9 of this Act has a lien on the animal for the reasonable value of the animal's care

1 and shelter, and for any expenses incurred in notifying the animal's owner. This lien is superior
2 to any other claim or lien.

3 SECTION 12. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
4 created and enacted as follows:

5 Sale of seized animal.

- 6 1. A court may order that an animal seized under section 9 of this Act be sold to pay for 7 any expenses incurred as a result of its seizure. Title to the animal passes to the 8 purchaser at the time of the sale.
- 9 2. A court may award costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person bringing the 10 action to enforce the lien, arrange for adoption of the animal, or arrange for destruction
11 and disposal of the animal if no market exists for the animal or if it is a companion
12 animal.
- 13 3. If the animal is sold, the lienholder is entitled to the proceeds of the sale, to the extent
14 of the lien. Any remaining amount must be paid to the owner, if known. If the owner is 15 not known, the remainder must be deposited in the county general fund.
- 16 4. If a purchaser is not found for the animal, the agriculture commissioner shall determine 17 whether the animal is to be offered for adoption or destroyed and disposed of in 18 accordance with law.

19 SECTION 13. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
20 created and enacted as follows:

21 Return of animal to owner.

22 If the owner of an animal seized under section 9 of this Act asks the court to return the 23 animal, the court shall require the owner to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court, within 24 ten days, that the owner can and will continue to care for the animal in a manner that is not in 25 violation of this chapter. Before the court returns the animal to its owner, the owner shall pay all
26 costs associated with the animal's seizure.

27 SECTION 14. A new section to chapter 36-21.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
28 created and enacted as follows:

29 Conviction - Prohibition or restriction of ownership.
