"SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 50-25.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

50-25.1-11. Confidentiality of records - Authorized disclosures.

1. A report made under this chapter, as well as any other information obtained, is confidential and must be made available to:
 - ~~1.~~a. A physician who has before the physician a child whom the physician reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected.
 - ~~2.~~b. A person who is authorized to place a child in protective custody and has before the person a child whom the person reasonably suspects may have been abused or neglected and the person requires the information to determine whether to place the child in protective custody.
 - ~~3.~~c. Authorized staff of the department and its authorized agents, children's advocacy centers, and appropriate state and local child protection team members, and citizen review committee members.
 - ~~4.~~d. Any person who is the subject of the report; provided, however, that the identity of persons reporting or supplying information under this chapter is protected until the information is needed for use in an administrative proceeding arising out of the report.

- 5.e. Public officials and their authorized agents who require the information in connection with the discharge of their official duties.
 - 6.f. A court, including an administrative hearing office, whenever the court determines that the information is necessary for the determination of an issue before the court.
 - 7.g. A person engaged in a bona fide research purpose approved by the department's institutional review board; provided, however, that no individually identifiable information as defined in section 50-06-15 is made available to the researcher unless the information is absolutely essential to the research purpose and the department gives prior approval.
 - 8.h. A person who is identified in subsection 1 of section 50-25.1-03, and who has made a report of suspected child abuse or neglect, if the child is likely to or continues to come before the reporter in the reporter's official or professional capacity.
 - 9.i. A parent or a legally appointed guardian of the child identified in the report as suspected of being, or having been, abused or neglected, provided the identity of persons making the report or supplying information under this chapter is protected. Unless the information is confidential under section 44-04-18.7, when a decision is made under section 50-25.1-05.1 that services are required to provide for the protection and treatment of an abused or neglected child, the department shall make a good-faith effort to provide written notice of the decision to persons identified in this subsection. The department shall consider any known domestic violence when providing notification under this section.
2. The parent or legally appointed guardian of a child receiving early childhood services under chapter 50-11.1 may receive the name of the subject, a summary of the facts, and the results of an assessment conducted under this chapter if the report made under this chapter involves the owner, operator, staff member, or household member of the early childhood program, the holder of a self-declaration or a household member of the holder of a self-declaration, or the in-home provider or a household member of the in-home provider, who is providing care to the child. The department shall make a good-faith effort to provide written notice of the results of an assessment conducted under this chapter to parents or legally appointed guardians identified in this subsection."
