1	4.	Subject to subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-04 and to subsection 3, and except as
2		otherwise provided in subsections 6, 7, and 8, a limitation on the authority of a person
3		or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of 4		knowledge or notice of the limitation by any person.
5	5.	Subject to subsection 3, a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property
6		and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person
7		that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that when the person
8		gives value:
9		a. The person has knowledge to the contrary;
10		b. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2;
11		or
12		c. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that
13		became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.
14	6.	Subject to subsection 3, an effective statement of authority that grants authority to 15		transfer real property held in the name of the limited liability company, whether or not a
16		certified copy of the statement is recorded in the real property records, is conclusive in 17		favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the 18		contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:
19		a. The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection 2
20		and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been 21		recorded in the real property records; or
22		b. A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that
23		became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective and a
24		certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the real property
25		records.
26	7.	Subject to subsection 3, if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a
27		limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability
28		company is recorded in the real property records, then all persons are deemed to 29		know of the limitation.

1	8.	Subject to subsection 9, an effective notice of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed
2		statement of authority for the purposes of subsection 6 and is a limitation on authority
3		for the purposes of subsection 7.
4	9.	After a notice of dissolution becomes effective, a limited liability company may file with 5		the secretary of state and, if appropriate, may record in the real property records, a
6		statement of authority that is designated as a postdissolution statement of authority.
7		The statement operates as provided in subsections 6 and 7.
8	10.	An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this 9		section and may be recorded by certified copy in the real property records for the 10		purposes of subdivision a of subsection 6.
11	10-3	2.1-25. Statement of denial.
12	A pe	rson named in a filed statement of authority granting that person authority may file with 13	the secr	etary of state for filing a statement of denial that:
14	1.	Provides the name of the limited liability company and the caption of the statement of 15		authority to which the statement of denial pertains; and
16	2.	Denies the grant of authority.
17	10-3	2.1-26. Liability of members, managers, and governors.
18	1.	The debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited liability company, whether arising
19		in contract, tort, or otherwise:
20		a. Are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the company; and 21		b. Do not become the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a member, manager,
22		or governor solely by reason of the member acting as a member, manager acting
23		as a manager, or governor acting as a governor.
24	2.	The failure of a limited liability company to observe formalities relating exclusively to 25		the management of its internal affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on the 26		members, managers, or governors for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the 27		company.
28	3.	Except as relates to the failure of a limited liability company to observe any formalities
29		relating exclusively to the management of its internal affairs, the case law that states
30		the conditions and circumstances under which the corporate veil of a corporation may 31		be pierced under North Dakota law also applies to limited liability companies.

1	10- ;	32.1-2	27. Becoming a member.
2	1.	lf a	limited liability company is to have only one member upon formation, then the
3		pers	son becomes a member as agreed by that person and the organizer of the 4		con	npany. That person and the organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If
5		diff	erent, then the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.
6	2.	lf a	limited liability company is to have more than one member upon formation, then 7		thos	se persons become members as agreed by the persons before the formation of the 8		con	pany. The organizer acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and 9		may	y be, but need not be, one of the persons.
10	3.	A sł	nelf limited liability company shall not be allowed under this chapter.
11	4.	Afte	er a limited liability company has or has had at least one member, a person
12		bec	omes a member:
13		a.	As provided in the operating agreement;
14		b.	As the result of a transaction effective under sections 10-32.1-55 through
15			10-32.1-71;
16		C.	With the consent of all the members; or 17		d.	If, within ninety consecutive days after the company ceases to have any 18			members:
19			(1) The last person to have been a member, or the legal representative of that 20			person, designates a person to become a member; and
21			(2) The designated person consents to become a member.
22	5.	A pe	erson may become a member without acquiring a transferable interest and without 23		mał	king or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited liability company.
24	10- ;	32.1-2	28. Form of contribution.
25	A co	ontrib	ution may consist of tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited
26	liability of	comp	any, including money, services performed, promissory notes, other agreements to
27	contribu	te mo	oney or property, and contracts for services to be performed.
28	10-	32.1-2	29. Liability for contributions.
29	1.	The	obligation of a person to make a contribution to a limited liability company is not 30		exc	used by the death, disability, or other inability of the person to perform personally. If 31		a pe	erson does not make a required contribution, then the person or the estate of the

1		person is obligated to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the 2		contribution which has not been made, at the option of the company.
3	2.	A creditor of a limited liability company which extends credit or otherwise acts in 4		reliance on an obligation described in subsection 1 may enforce the obligation.
5	10-3	2.1-30. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.
6	1.	Any distributions made by a limited liability company before its dissolution and winding
7		up must be in equal shares among members and dissociated members, except to the 8		extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective under section 10-32.1-44 and 9		any charging order in effect under section 10-32.1-45.
10	2.	A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited
11		liability company only if the company decides to make an interim distribution. The 12		dissociation of a person does not entitle the person to a distribution.
13	3.	A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited
14		liability company in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in 15		subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-54, a limited liability company may distribute an asset
16		in kind if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person
17		receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the share of distributions of the 18		person.
19	4.	If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, then the member
20		or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of 21		the limited liability company with respect to the distribution.
22	10-3	2.1-31. Limitations on distribution.
23	1.	A limited liability company may not make a distribution if after the distribution:
24		a. The company would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the 25		ordinary course of the activities of the company; or
26		b. The total assets of the company would be less than the sum of its total liabilities
27		plus the amount that would be needed, if the company were to be dissolved,
28		wound up, and terminated at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential 29		rights upon dissolution, winding up, and termination of members whose 30		preferential rights are superior to those of persons receiving the distribution.

1	2.	A limited liability company may base a determination that a distribution is not
2		prohibited under subsection 1 on financial statements prepared on the basis of 3		accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a
4		fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.
5	3.	Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the effect of a distribution under
6		subsection 1 is measured:
7		a. In the case of a distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of a
8		transferable interest in the company, as of the date money or other property is 9		transferred or debt incurred by the company; and 10		b. In all other cases, as of the date:
11		(1) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within one hundred 12		twenty days after that date; or
13		(2) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty 14		days after the distribution is authorized.
15	4.	The indebtedness of a limited liability company to a member incurred by reason of a 16		distribution made according to this section is at parity with the indebtedness of the 17		company to its general, unsecured creditors.
18	5.	The indebtedness of a limited liability company, including indebtedness issued in 19		connection with or as part of a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of 20		subsection 1 if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and
21		interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could be made to members
22		under this section.
23	6.	If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, then each payment of principal or interest
24		on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the 25		date the payment is made.
26	7.	In subsection 1, "distribution" does not include amounts constituting reasonable
27		compensation for present or past services or reasonable payments made in the 28		ordinary course of business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits
29		program.

1	10-3	2.1-32. Liability for improper distributions.
2	1.	Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, if a member of a member-managed
3		limited liability company, manager of a manager-managed limited liability company, or 4		governor of a board-managed limited liability company consents to a distribution made
5		in violation of section 10-32.1-31 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply
6		with section 10-32.1-41, then the member, manager, or governor is personally liable to 7		the company for the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could 8		have been distributed without the violation of section 10-32.1-31.
9	2.	To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed limited liability company
10		expressly relieves a member of the authority and responsibility to consent to 11		distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other 12		members, the liability stated in subsection 1 applies to the other members and not the 13		member that the operating agreement relieves of authority and responsibility.
14	3.	A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution to that person was
15		made in violation of section 10-32.1-31 is personally liable to the limited liability
16		company but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded
17		the amount that could have been properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
18	4.	A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under 19		subsection 1 may:
20		a. Implead any other person that is subject to liability under subsection 1 and seek 21		to compel pro rata contribution from the person in that action to the extent of the 22		liability of the person as provided in subsection 1; and
23		b. Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of section 10-32.1-31
24		and seek to compel contribution from the person in the amount by which the 25		distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been 26		properly paid under section 10-32.1-31.
27	5.	An action under this section is barred if not commenced within two years after the 28		distribution.
29	10-3	2.1-33. Direct action by a member.
30	1.	Subject to subsection 2, a member may maintain a direct action against another
31		member, a manager, a governor, or the limited liability company to enforce the rights of

1			the member and otherwise protect the interests of the member, including rights and
2			interests under the operating agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the 3			membership relationship.
4		2.	A member maintaining a direct action under this section must plead and prove an 5			actual or threatened injury that is not solely the result of an injury suffered or 6			threatened to be suffered by the limited liability company.
7		10-3	2.1-34. Derivative action.
8		A m	ember may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited liability company
9	if:
10		1.	The member first makes a demand on the other members in a member-managed
11			limited liability company, the managers of a manager-managed limited liability
12			company, or the board of governors of a board-managed limited liability company
13			requesting that they cause the company to bring an action to enforce the right, and the 14			member or board does not bring the action within a reasonable time; or 15		2.	A demand under subsection 1 would be futile.
16		10-3	2.1-35. Proper plaintiff.
17		1.	Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a derivative action under section
18			10-32.1-34 may be maintained only by a person that is a member at the time the 19			action is commenced and remains a member while the action continues.
20		2.	If the sole plaintiff in a derivative action dies while the action is pending, then the court
21			may permit another member of the limited liability company to be substituted as 22			plaintiff.
23		10-3	2.1-36. Pleading.
24		In a	derivative action under section 10-32.1-34, the complaint must state with particularity:
25		1.	The date and content of the demand of the plaintiff and the response to the demand
26			by the other members, managers, or board of governors; or
27		2.	If a demand has not been made, the reasons a demand under subsection 1 of section
28			10-32.1-34, would be futile.
29		10-3	2.1-37. Special litigation committee.
30		1.	If a limited liability company is named as or made a party in a derivative proceeding,
31			then the company may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims

	ass	erted	in the proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best inte	interests of the company. If the company appoints a special litigation committee, then on i	on motion by the committee made in the name of the company, except for good cause
	sho	wn, th	ne court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the con	nmitte	e to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from

2.	A s	pecial	litigation committee may be composed of one or more disinterested and inde	epend	ent individuals, who may be members.
3.	A s	pecial	litigation committee may be appointed:
	a.	In a	member-managed limited liability company:
		(1)	By the consent of a majority of the members not named as defendants or

		(2)	If all members are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the proceeding, then

	b.	In a	manager-managed limited liability company:

23	10-3	2.1-39.	Management of a limited liability company.
24	1.	A limit	ed liability company is a member-managed limited liability company unless the 25		operat	ing agreement:
26		a. E	xpressly provides that:
27		(1	 The company is or will be "manager-managed" or "board-managed";
28		(2	2) The company is or will be "managed by managers" or "managed by a 29			board"; or
30		(3	3) Management of the company is or will be "vested in managers" or "vested in 31			a board"; or

1		b.	Includes words of similar import.
2	2.	In a	a member-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
3		a.	The management and conduct of the company are vested in the members.
4		b.	Each member has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities
5			of the company.
6		C.	A difference arising among members as to a matter in the ordinary course of the 7			activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the members.
8		d.	An act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the company may be 9			undertaken only with the consent of all members.
10		e.	The operating agreement may be amended only with the consent of all members.
11	3.	In a	a manager-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
12		a.	Except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the 13			activities of the company is decided exclusively by the managers.
14		b.	Each manager has equal rights in the management and conduct of the activities
15			of the company.
16		C.	A difference arising among managers as to a matter in the ordinary course of the 17			activities of the company may be decided by a majority of the managers.
18		d.	The consent of all members is required to:
19			(1) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the 20			property of the company, with or without the good will, outside the ordinary
21			course of the activities of the company;
22			(2) Approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under sections 10-32.1-55
23			through 10-32.1-71;
24			(3) Undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the 25			company; or
26			(4) Amend the operating agreement.
27		e.	A manager may be chosen at any time by the consent of a majority of the 28			members and remains a manager until a successor has been chosen, unless the 29			manager at an earlier time resigns, is removed, or dies, or, in the case of a
30			manager that is not an individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any 31			time by the consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

	0
1		f.	A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the dissociation of a
2			member that is also a manager removes the person as a manager. If a person
3			that is both a manager and a member ceases to be a manager, that cessation
4			does not by itself dissociate the person as a member.
5		g.	The ceasing of a person to be a manager does not discharge any debt,
6			obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or members which the 7			person incurred while a manager.
8	4.	In a	a board-managed limited liability company, the following rules apply:
9		a.	The activities and affairs of a limited liability company are to be managed by and
10			under the direction of a board of governors, which shall consist of one or more
11			governors as determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of 12			the members. Except as specifically stated in this subsection and in subsection 5
13			of section 10-32.1-21 and subject to section 10-32.1-24:
14			(1) The board acts only through an act of the board;
15			(2) No individual governor has any right or power to act for the limited liability
16			company; and
17			(3) Only officers, managers, or other agents designated by the board or through
18			a process approved by the board have the right to act for the limited liability
19			company, and that right extends only to the extent consistent with the terms
20			of the designation.
21		b.	A governor must be an individual. An individual need not be a member to be a
22			governor, but the dissociation of a member who is an individual and who also a
23			governor disqualifies the individual as a governor. If an individual who is both a 24			governor and a member ceases to be a governor, that cessation does not by 25			itself dissociate the individual as a member. The ceasing of an individual to be a
26			governor does not discharge any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited
27			liability company or members which the individual incurred while a governor.
28		C.	The method of election and any additional qualifications for governors will be as 29			determined by members holding a majority of the voting power of the members.
30			Governors are elected by a plurality of the voting power present and entitled to

1		vote on the election of governors at a duly called or held meeting at which a
2		quorum is present.
3	d.	A member may waive notice of a meeting for the election of governors. The 4		waiver of notice by a member under this subdivision is effective whether given 5		before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by 6		attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting for election of governors is a 7		waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the 8		beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is 9		not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the 10		objection.
11	e.	Once elected, a governor holds office for the term for which the governor was 12		elected and until a successor is elected, or until the earlier death, resignation,
13		disqualification, or removal of the governor. A governor may resign at any time. A
14		governor may be removed at any time, without cause and without advance
15		notice, by a majority of the voting power of all of the members. The existence of 16		vacancies does not affect the power of the board to function if at least one
17		governor remains in office.
18	f.	When a vacancy occurs, the limited liability company shall immediately notify all
19		members in a record of the vacancy, stating the cause of the vacancy and the 20		date the notice is sent. Within thirty days of that date, the members may fill the 21		vacancy in the same method the members may elect governors under 22		subdivision c. If the vacancy is not filled by the members under this subdivision, 23		then the vacancy may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the 24		remaining governors, even though less than a quorum.
25	g.	The board shall meet from time to time as determined by members holding a
26		majority of the voting power of the members, at a place decided by the board. If 27		the day or date, time, and place of a board of governors meeting have been
28		provided in a board resolution, or announced at a previous meeting of the board
29		of governors, then no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not 30		be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is

1		taken. If notice is required for a meeting, then notice shall be made in the manner
2		stated in subdivision h.
3	h.	A governor may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice in a
4		record to all governors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice
5		need not state the purpose of the meeting. As to each governor, the notice is 6		effective when given.
7	i.	"Notice" shall be determined as provided in subsection 35 of section 10-32.1-02.
8	j.	A governor may waive notice of a meeting of the board of governors. A waiver of 9		notice by a governor entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or 10		after the meeting, and whether given in a record, orally, or by attendance.
11		Attendance by a governor at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting,
12		except where the governor objects at the beginning of the meeting to the 13		transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened
14		and does not participate in the meeting after the objection.
15	k.	A majority of the governors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction
16		of business. When a quorum is present at a duly called or held meeting of the 17		board, the vote of a majority of the directors present constitutes an act of the 18		board. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened,
19		then the governors present may continue to transact business until adjournment,
20		even though the withdrawal of a number of governors originally present leaves
21		less than the proportion or number otherwise required for a quorum.
22	l.	Any meeting among governors may be conducted solely by one or more means
23		of remote communication through which all of the governors may participate with 24		each other during the meeting, if the number of governors participating in the 25		meeting would be sufficient to constitute a quorum. Participation in a meeting
26		through remote communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.
27	m.	A governor may participate in a board of governors meeting by means of remote
28		communication, through which the governor, other governors so participating,
29		and all governors physically present at the meeting may participate with each
30		other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting through remote
31		communication constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

1	n.	An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by
2		written action signed by the number of governors that would be required to take
3		the same action at a meeting of the board of governors at which all governors
4		were present. The written action is effective when signed by the required number
5		of governors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.
6		When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all governors, then all
7		governors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to 8		provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A governor who does not 9		sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken
10		by the written action.
11	0.	If the board designates a person as "chief manager", "president", "chief executive 12		officer", or another title of similar import, then that person shall:
13		(1) Serve as an agent of the limited liability company at the will of the board,
14		without prejudice to any rights the person may have under a contract with 15		the limited liability company:
16		(2) Have general active management of the business of the limited liability
17		company, subject to the supervision and control of the board;
18		(3) See that all orders and resolutions of the board of governors are carried into 19		effect;
20		(4) Sign and deliver in the name of the limited liability company any deeds,
21		mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments pertaining to the business
22		of the limited liability company, except in cases in which the authority to sign 23		and deliver is required by law to be exercised by another person or is 24		expressly delegated by the board of governors to some other officer or 25		agent of the limited liability company;
26		(5) Maintain records of and, whenever necessary, certify all proceedings of the 27		board of governors and the members; and
28		(6) Perform other duties prescribed by the board of governors.
29	p.	If the board designates a person as "treasurer", "chief financial officer", or 30		another title of similar import, then that person shall:

3		that the criteria for indemnification have not been satisfied; and
4		b. After a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination
5		would not preclude indemnification under this section.
6		c. The written undertaking required by subdivision a is an unlimited general
7		obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted
8		without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.
9	4.	The articles of organization or the operating agreement either may prohibit 10		indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may 11		impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the 12		conditions contained in subsections 2 and 3, including, without limitation, monetary
13		limits on indemnification or advances of expenses, if the conditions apply equally to all
14		persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification
15		or advances may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or
16		advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring
17		before the effective date of a provision in the articles of organization, a member control
18		agreement, or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the 19		prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances.
20	5.	This section does not require, or limit the ability of, a limited liability company to
21		reimburse expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements, incurred by a person
22		in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the 23		person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.
24	6.	With respect to the determination of eligibility:
25		a. All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the 26		criteria in subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to 27		payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a
28		proceeding as provided in subsection 3 must be made:
29		(1) In a board-managed limited liability company:

1		(a)	By the board of governors by a majority of a quorum, provided that
2			governors who are, at the time, parties to the proceeding shall not be
3			counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;
4		(b)	If a quorum under subparagraph a cannot be obtained, then by a 5			majority of a committee of the board of governors, consisting solely of 6			two or more governors not at the time parties to the proceeding, duly 7			designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board of 8			governors including governors who are parties; and
9		(c)	If a determination is not made under subparagraph a or b, then by 10			special legal counsel, selected either by a majority of the board of 11			governors or a committee by vote pursuant to subparagraph a or b or,

18		held	by parties to the proceeding must not be counted in determining the 19		pres	ence of a quorum and are not considered to be present and entitled to

21	(3)	lf an	adverse determination is made under subparagraphs a or b, or if no

27			a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the 28			proceeding involving the liability of the person took place, upon
29			application of the person and any notice which the court requires. The 30			person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of 31			expenses pursuant to this subdivision has the burden of establishing

1			that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or
2			reimbursement of expenses.
3		b.	With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or 4			omissions complained of in the proceedings, a member, governor, manager, or

8			subsection 2 have been satisfied and whether this person is entitled to payment
9			or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding
10			as provided in subsection 3 may be made:
11		9	(1) In a board-managed limited liability company, by an annually appointed
12			committee of the board of governors, having at least one member who is a 13			governor, which committee shall report at least annually to the board of 14			governors concerning its actions; and
15		9	(2) In all other cases by a committee appointed annually by the members,
16			having at least one committee member who is a member of the limited
17			liability company, which committee shall report at least annually to the board
18			of governors concerning its actions.

25	6.	The	right	s under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.
26	7.	In a	dditio	n to any restriction or condition stated in its operating agreement, a limited

29		furn i	ished	under this section, including designating information confidential and
30		impo	osing	nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute

1		concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company
2		has the burden of proving reasonableness.
3	10-3	2.1-43. Nature of a transferable interest.
4	A tra	nsferable interest is personal property.
5	10-3	2.1-44. Transfer of a transferable interest.
6	1.	A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:
7		a. Is permissible;
8		b. Does not by itself cause the dissociation of a member or a dissolution and 9		winding up of the activities of the limited liability company; and 10		c. Subject to section 10-32.1-46, does not entitle the transferee to:
11		(1) Participate in the management or conduct of the activities of the company;
12		or
13		(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, have access to records or 14		other information concerning the activities of the company.
15	2.	A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to 16		which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.
17	3.	In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability company, a transferee is entitled to 18		an account of the transactions of the company only from the date of dissolution.
19	4.	A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by the 20		limited liability company in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest
21		represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.
22	5.	A limited liability company need not give effect to the rights of a transferee under this
23		section until the company has notice of the transfer.
24	6.	A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in 25		the operating agreement is ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at 26		the time of transfer.
27	7.	Except as otherwise provided in subdivision b of subsection 4 of section 10-32.1-48,
28		when a member transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a
29		member other than the interest in distributions transferred and retains all duties and 30		obligations of a member.

1	8.	When a member transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a member
2		with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the obligations of the 3		member under section 10-32.1-29 and subsection 3 of section 10-32.1-32, known to 4		the transferee when the transferee becomes a member.
5	10-3	2.1-45. Charging order.
6	1.	On application by a judgment creditor of a member or transferee, a court may enter a
7		charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the 8		unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on the 9		transferable interest of a judgment debtor and requires the limited liability company to 10		pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that 11		would otherwise be paid to the judgment debtor.
12	2.	To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a
13		charging order in effect under subsection 1, the court may:
14		a. Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the 15		power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and 16		b. Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.
17	3.	Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment
18		debt within a reasonable time, then the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale
19		of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the 20		transferable interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to section
21		10-32.1-44.
22	4.	At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, the member or transferee whose
23		transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection 1 may extinguish
24		the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the 25		satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.
26	5.	At any time before foreclosure under subsection 3, a limited liability company or one or 27		more members whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may 28		pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby
29		succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.
30	6.	This chapter does not deprive any member or transferee of the benefit of any
31		exemption laws applicable to the transferable interest of the member or transferee.

1	7.	This se	ction provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking to enforce a
2		judgme	nt against a member or transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor,
3		satisfy f	he judgment from the transferable interest of the judgment debtor.
4	10-3	82.1-46. I	Power of the personal representative of a deceased member.
