In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

2		personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms
3		requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission,
4		on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular
5		taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to
6		a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits,
7		the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the
8		commission.
9	—_6.	Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this article shall be confidential and
10		available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions, or the United States.
11		Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the states or
12		subdivisions on whose account the commission performs the audit, and only through
13		the appropriate agencies or officers of such states or subdivisions. Nothing in this

15		otherwise required by law.
16	7.	Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on-
17		behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated
18		by this article.

21		means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

26		whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.
27	2.	Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the
28		same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a
29		party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.
30		ARTICLE VIII - EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS AND JURISDICTION
31	Not	ging in this compact shall be construed to:

1	1. Affect the power of any state or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation.
2	2. Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax
3	on motor fuel, other than a sales tax; provided, that the definition of "tax" in subsection
4	9 of article VI may apply for the purposes of that article and the commission's powers
5	of study and recommendation pursuant to subsection 3 of article IV may apply.
6	3. Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any state or local court or administrative officer or
7	body with respect to any person, corporation, or other entity or subject matter, except
8	to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this
9	compact upon another agency or body.

14	of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any state or of the United States
15	or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is held invalid,
16	the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government,
17	agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held

ARTICLE III - ELEMENTS OF INCOME TAX LAWS

1. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party state or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party states may elect to apportion and allocate the taxpayer's income in the manner provided by the laws of such state or by the laws of such states and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party states or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party states or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. - 3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this article, a taxpayer is taxable in another state if (a) in that state the taxpayer is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (b) that state has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the state does or does not.

12	of storage in this state and (1) the purchaser is the United States government, or
13	(2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the state of the purchaser.

15	(a) The income-producing activity is performed in this state; or
16	(b) The income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this state and a
17	greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this state than

22	business activity, if reasonable:

- 2. Any party state or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records, or other documents may request the commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The commission may enter into agreements with party states or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The commission shall make charges, to be paid by the state or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.
- 3. The commission may require the attendance of any person within the state where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such state for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property, or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, the person may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the commission within the state of which the person is a resident; provided, that such state has adopted this article.
- 4. The commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the state or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the state in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this subsection apply only to courts in a state that has adopted this article.
- 5. The commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to - a number of party states or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the commission.

- 6. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party states, their subdivisions, or the United States. - Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party states or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this article.
- 8. In no event shall the commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.
- 9. As used in this article, "tax", in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

ARTICLE IX - ARBITRATION

- 1. Whenever the commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of article VII.
- 2. The commission shall select and maintain an arbitration panel composed of officers and employees of state and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.
- 3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ article IV, or whenever the laws of the party state or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the commission and to each party state or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the state or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject the taxpayer to double or multiple taxation by two or more

- party states or subdivisions thereof. Each party state and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.
- 4. The arbitration board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the commission's arbitration panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the arbitration panel. The two persons selected for the board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this subsection shall jointly select the third member of the board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the arbitration panel. No member of a board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if that member is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residence within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this subsection.
- 5. The board may sit in any state or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the state of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence, or domicile, in any state where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.
- 6. The board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The board shall act by majority vote.
- 7. The board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena, and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the state in which the board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this subsection apply only in states that have adopted this article.

- 8. Unless the parties otherwise agree the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the board in such manner as it may determine. The commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of arbitration boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a state or local government who serves as a member of a board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless that person is required on account of that person's service to forego the regular compensation attaching to that person's public employment, but any such board member shall be entitled to expenses.
- 9. The board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.
- 10. The board shall file with the commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: the determination of the board; the board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the commission to be filed.
- 11. The commission shall publish the determinations of boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.
- 12. The commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party states.
- 13. Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matteror matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

ARTICLE XVII - ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL

- This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any seven states.
 Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other state upon its enactment thereof. The commission shall arrange for notification of all party states whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.
- 2. Any party state may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party state prior to the time of such withdrawal.

3. No proceeding commenced before an arbitration board prior to the withdrawal of a state and to which the withdrawing state or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

ARTICLE XIVIII - EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS AND JURISDICTION

- 4. Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

ARTICLE XIIIX - CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY

If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.
