* Local share increase is tied to anticipated changes in property valuation and mineral tax revenue and allocation formulas. The school aid formula contains an estimate for oil and gas production taxes (OGPT) to schools in 2014-15 of $26.3 million based on distributions by the State Treasurer through February. This is the amount used in the projections above for both years of the biennium.

75% of any increase or decrease from $26.3 million will have a direct effect on state general funds required to fund the formula. HB 1176 carries the formula for allocating oil and gas gross production taxes (OGPT) to school districts.
