REMARKS OF SENATOR VEDAA

MR. PRESIDENT: This weekend, after a long day at the state wrestling tournament, two Velva students were enjoying their evening at a hotel pool in Fargo. Sophie Hackman and Elizabeth Massine, or as her friends and family call her Lizzie, noticed a toddler struggling in the water. Sophie and Lizzie jumped into action, pulled the toddler from the pool, noticed she was blue, and ran to get help. This story has a happy ending and had it not been for state wrestling Sophie and Lizzie wouldn't have even been there. Sophie's brother, Elijah, took 3rd in state, and what you may ask was Lizzie there for. Well, Lizzie is the first girl to ever wrestle in the North Dakota state wrestling tournament. Hard work and determination not only earned Lizzie and Sophie's brother, Elijah, their way to the state wrestling tournament, but it also saved a life. Sophie was quoted, "I'm so happy, I'm so glad I was there at the right time. And that she'll be okay and that nothing bad happened to her. You have to help, even if they're okay and not drowning. You need to make sure, because you never know." Sophie, Lizzie thank you for your act of heroism. The few moments you took to save a life, gave life back to a toddler. Without the both of you she may have had only moments left to live.

Mr. President, thank you for allowing me to recognize Sophie and Lizzie, two District 6 heroes, who will never be forgotten, especially by a toddlers very grateful family.

MOTION

SEN. KLEIN MOVED that the remarks of Sen. Vedaa be printed in the Journal, which motion prevailed.
