Page 253, line 17, replace "14 YEAS, 0 NAYS" with "10 YEAS, 4 NAYS"

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

SEN. ERBELE rose on a point of personal privilege.

REMARKS OF SENATOR ERBELE

MR. PRESIDENT: I want to talk about an award that has national, state, and local significance. The National Environmental Stewardship Award provides an opportunity for the beef industry to showcase the stewardship, conservation, and business practices that work together on farms and ranches. The award has been presented for the past 26 years by the National Cattlemen's Beef Association.

This is a very prestigious award for our state, I am especially proud to say this award winning ranch is located in District 28. It is the Black Leg Ranch at McKenzie, ND. For those who do not recognize the name of the ranch, I am sure you all know at least some of the members of the ranch family. They are Jerry and Renae Doan, Don and Shanda Morgan, Jeremy and Ashlee Doan, Jay and Kari Doan, and Jayce Doan and Kassy Brough.

The Doan's family ranch had it beginning as a homestead in 1882, in what was then Dakota territory by George H. Doan. The ranch is now in its fifth generation of operation with the 6th generation on the ground.

The Doan family and Black Leg Ranch are a tremendous example of cattle producers committed to doing the right thing for both their businesses and the environment. They engage in Holistic management practices to regenerate native rangeland, cropland, and wildlife resources for generations to come.

We are proud of the efforts the Doans have made to demonstrate that environmental stewardship and successful ranching are not only compatible, but logical. Ranches all across the country are making these kind of dedicated decisions to better both their operations and the world around them.

It is an honor to extend congratulations to the Doan family for winning the Environmental Stewardship Award on behalf of all the hard working ranch families in North Dakota. We are especially proud to call them friends here in the Senate of North Dakota.
