24	amended and reenacted as follows:
25	29-31.1-01. Definitions.
26	— In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:
27	1. "Forfeitable property" means any of the following:
28	a. Property that is illegally possessed or is contraband.
29	b. Property that has been used or is intended to be used to facilitate the
30	commission of a criminal offense or to avoid detection or apprehension of a
31	person committing a criminal offense. For purposes of this subdivision, property

1	does not include a residence or other real estate where a co-owner, whether by
2	joint tenancy, tenancy in common, or tenancy by the entireties, of the residence-
3	or other real estate, has not been convicted of the criminal offense that was
4	facilitated by the use or intended use of the property.
5	c. Property that is acquired as or from the proceeds of a criminal offense.
6	d. Property offered or given to another as an inducement for the commission of a
7	criminal offense.
8	e. A vehicle or other means of transportation used in the commission of a felony, the
9	escape from the scene of the commission of a felony, or in the transportation of
10	property that is the subject matter of a felony.
11	f. Personal property used in the theft of livestock or the transportation of stolen-
12	livestock.
13	2. "Law enforcement agency" or "law enforcement agent" means a nonfederal public
14	agency or servant authorized by law or by a government agency or branch to enforce
15	the law and to conduct or engage in investigations or prosecutions for violations of law,
16	including the authority to conduct or engage in seizure and forfeiture.
17	3. "Proportional" means corresponding in degree and not unconstitutionally excessive.
18	4. "Seized property" means property taken or held by any law enforcement agency in the
19	course of that agency's official duties with or without the consent of the person, if any,
20	who had possession or a right to possession of the property at the time it was taken
21	into custody.
22	— 3. 5. "Seizing agency" is the law enforcement agency that has taken possession of or
23	seized property in the course of that agency's official duties.
24	SECTION 12. AMENDMENT. Section 29-31.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is
25	amended and reenacted as follows:
26	29-31.1-03. Seizure of forfeitable property.
27	1. Forfeitable property may be seized whenever and wherever the property is found
28	within this state. Forfeitable property may be seized by taking custody of the property
29	or by serving upon the person in possession of the property a notice of forfeiture and
30	seizure.

1	2. If the court finds that the forfeiture is warranted, an order transferring ownership to the
2	seizing agency must be entered and the property must be delivered to the seizing
3	agency for disposition as directed by the court.
4	a. Property that has been seized for forfeiture, and is not already secured as
5	evidence in a criminal case, must be safely secured or stored by the agency that
6	caused its seizure.
7	b. If the property to be seized for forfeiture is livestock, the court may order the
8	seizing agency to provide care for the livestock and maintain the livestock at the
9	livestock's current physical location. If the court orders the seizing agency to
10	provide care for the livestock and maintain the livestock at the livestock's current
11	physical location, the court shall order the owner to pay or reimburse the seizing
12	agency from the proceeds of the sale for the costs and expenses associated with
13	the care and custody of the livestock.
14	c. As used in this subsection, "care" includes food and water, as appropriate for the
15	species, the breed, and the livestock's age and physical condition, and necessary
16	medical attention.
17	SECTION 13. AMENDMENT. Section 29-31.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is
18	amended and reenacted as follows:
19	29-31.1-04. Forfeiture proceedings.
20	1. Forfeiture is a civil proceeding not dependent upon a prosecution for, or and conviction
21	of, a criminal offense and forfeiture. Forfeiture proceedings are separate and distinct
22	from any related criminal action., and may not be initiated until the owner of the
23	property has been convicted of or pled guilty to a criminal offense.
24	2. Forfeiture proceedings brought under this chapter must be conducted in accordance
25	with the procedures established for the forfeiture of property in sections 19-03.1-36.1
26	through 19-03.1-36.7 under this chapter.
27	3. Forfeitures under this chapter must be proportional. A forfeiture with a value not
28	exceeding the maximum financial penalty for its companion criminal charge is
29	presumptively proportional.
30	4. This chapter does not prohibit disposition of property subject to forfeiture by
31	agreement of the parties.

1	SECTION 14. Section 29-31.1-04.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
2	enacted as follows:
3	29-31.1-04.1. Manner of forfeiture.
4	Property subject to forfeiture, other than property that may be forfeited summarily, may be
5	forfeited by order of the court after:
6	1. A written consent to forfeiture executed by the owner of the property and all persons
7	with a legal interest in the property to be forfeited has been filed with the court; or
8	2. Commencement of forfeiture proceedings.
9	SECTION 15. Section 29-31.1-04.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
10	enacted as follows:
11	29-31.1-04.2. Forfeiture proceeding as civil action - Standard of proof.
12	Forfeiture proceedings are civil actions against the property to be forfeited and the standard
13	of proof is clear and convincing evidence.
14	SECTION 16. Section 29-31.1-04.3 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
15	enacted as follows:
16	29-31.1-04.3. Summons and complaint for forfeiture of property - Contents of
17	complaint - Notice.
18	1. When property is to be forfeited, in the absence of a written consent to forfeiture,
19	forfeiture proceedings must be commenced by the filing of a summons and complaint
20	for forfeiture of the property in the district court of the county where the property was
21	seized, is being held, or is located.
22	2. If the property to be forfeited is real property, the summons and complaint must be
23	filed in the county where the real property, or some part of the real property, is located.
24	3. A proceeding under this chapter must be brought in the name of the state.
25	4. The complaint must include:
26	a. A description of the property;
27	b. The property's location;
28	c. The name of property's present custodian;
29	d. The name of each known owner;
30	e. The name of each known party with a legal interest in the property;
31	f. The elements of the violation claimed to exist; and

1	g. A request to enforce the forfeiture.
2	5. Notice of the forfeiture proceeding must be given to each known owner and known
3	person with a legal interest in the property subject to forfeiture by serving a copy of the
4	summons and complaint in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil
5	Procedure.
6	6. The procedure governing the proceedings, except as otherwise provided in this
7	chapter, is the same as prescribed for civil proceedings.
8	SECTION 17. Section 29-31.1-04.4 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
9	enacted as follows:
10	29-31.1-04.4. Answer by claimant of property - Time for filing.
11	Within thirty days after service of the summons and complaint for forfeiture, the owner of the
12	property to be forfeited and any other person with a legal interest in the property may file an
13	answer claiming an interest in the property and claiming the person's interest is not subject to
14	forfeiture under this chapter.
15	SECTION 18. Section 29-31.1-04.5 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
16	enacted as follows:
17	29-31.1-04.5. Disposition of property if no answer filed.
18	If an answer has not been filed with the court against the complaint for forfeiture within thirty
19	days after the summons and complaint have been served, the court shall order the forfeiture
20	and disposition of the property.
21	SECTION 19. Section 29-31.1-04.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
22	enacted as follows:
23	29-31.1-04.6. Hearing on contested forfeiture - Order releasing or forfeiting property.
24	1. If an answer is filed within the time limits provided in this chapter, the court shall set a
25	date for hearing on the forfeiture proceeding.
26	2. If the reasonable value of the property subject to forfeiture exceeds ten thousand
27	dollars, the proceeding must be tried by a jury as provided by law, unless all parties
28	waive the right to a jury trial.
29	3. If the reasonable value of the property subject to forfeiture does not exceed ten
30	thousand dollars, the proceeding must be by bench trial.

1	4.	At the hearing, the state shall establish by clear and convincing evidence the property
2		to be forfeited is subject to forfeiture under this chapter.
3	—_5.	If the property is not subject to forfeiture under this chapter, the court shall order the
4		property released to the owner or other person with a legal interest in the property as
5		that person's right, title, or interest appears.
6	6.	The court shall order the property forfeited upon clear and convincing evidence that
7		property or an interest therein is subject to forfeiture.
8	SEC	CTION 20. Section 29-31.1-04.7 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
9	enacted	as follows:
10	29-3	31.1-04.7. Hearing on proportionality of forfeiture.
11	1. _	Upon a determination by the court or a jury that property is subject to forfeiture, the
12		owner of the property to be forfeited or any other person with a legal interest in the
13		property may petition the court for a proportionality determination.
14	2.	The owner or person must establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, the
15		forfeiture is disproportional to the seriousness of the offense. Upon a determination the
16		forfeiture is disproportional, the court shall enter any order the court deems just to
17		render the forfeiture proportional.
18	 3.	In determining proportionality the court shall consider the following factors:
19		a. The seriousness of the offense;
20		b. The impact of the offense on the community;
21		c. The extent to which the owner or person participated in the offense;
22		d. The sentence imposed for committing the offense subject to forfeiture;
23		e. The reasonable value of the property;
24		f. The value of the property to the owner or person and any resulting hardship to
25		the owner or person and to the family of the owner or person;
26		g. If the property subject to forfeiture is a vehicle, whether the vehicle is the owner's
27		only vehicle; and
28		h. Any other factor the court deems relevant.
29	—SEC	CTION 21. Section 29-31.1-04.8 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and
30	enacted	as follows:

ı	29-31.	1-04.8. Legai interest in property.
2	 1. A	person alleging a bona fide legal interest in property to be forfeited shall establish,
3	b :	y a preponderance of the evidence, the legal interest existed at the time of seizure or
4	te	aking of custody of the property.
5	 2. Ir	the case of a claimed bona fide security interest in the property, the person claiming

The proceeds from the sale, together with any monetary funds ordered to be forfeited, must be used first for the payment of all must be added to the state school fund as provided under section 29-27-02.1. The court may order the proper costs and expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, and courtsales costs with any remaining proceeds to be deposited, subject to section 54-12-14, in the appropriate state, county, or city general fund as provided herein.
- 3. Dispose of the property in accordance with the order of the court if the property cannot be retained, used, or sold by the seizing agency Allow the owner or lienholder to purchase the property as provided by section 29-31.1-07.

SECTION 25. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 29-31.1-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 1. Property may not be forfeited under this chapter to the extent of an interest of an owner who had no part in the commission of the crime and who had no knowledge of the criminal use or intended use of the property. However, property may be forfeited if it is established that, by clear and convincing evidence, the owner permitted the use of the property under circumstances in which a reasonable person should have inquired into the intended use of the property and that the owner failed to do so, there is a rebuttable presumption that the owner knew that the property was intended to be used in the commission of a crime.
- SECTION 26. AMENDMENT. Section 29-31.1-08 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
- 29-31.1-08. Retention of forfeited property.
- If property forfeitable under this chapter is needed as evidence in a criminal proceeding, itexcept as otherwise ordered by the court, the property must be retained under the control of the prosecuting attorney, or the prosecuting attorney's designee, until such time as its use as evidence is no longer required.

1	SECTION 27. AMENDMENT. Section 29-31.1-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is
2	amended and reenacted as follows:
3	29-31.1-09. Disposition of forfeitable property held as evidence in criminal
4	proceeding.
5	— Notwithstanding other provisions of this chapter, in the case of forfeitable property seized
6	and held as evidence of the commission of a criminal offense, the court in which a criminal
7	prosecution was commenced may issue its order, upon motion and after hearing unless waived,
8	for disposition of the property in accordance with this chapter. Notice of the motion must be
9	served in accordance with the North Dakota Rules of Civil Procedure upon the owner and all
10	persons known to be claiming an interest in the property to be forfeited. The notice must be
11	served at least twenty days before a hearing on the motion unless the time period is waived by
12	all parties claiming an interest in the property. The motion must contain the information required
13	in a complaint as set forth in section 19-03.1-36.3. Although no separate forfeiture proceeding is
14	required to be instituted under this section, all other provisions of this chapter apply to
15	proceedings commenced pursuant to this section 29-31.1-04.3.
16	SECTION 28. A new section to chapter 29-31.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
17	created and enacted as follows:
18	— Reporting.
19	1. Annually, each law enforcement agency shall compile the following information
20	regarding seizures and forfeitures completed by the agency under state and federal
21	forfeiture law:
22	a. The total number of seizures of currency;
23	b. The total number of seizures and the number of items in each class of property
24	seized, including vehicles, houses, and other types of property seized;
25	c. The market value of each class of property seized, including currency, vehicles,
26	houses, and other types of property seized; and
27	d. The total number of occurrences of each class of crime underlying the forfeitures,
28	including controlled substances, driving while intoxicated, and other crimes.
29	2. The attorney general may require the reporting of additional information not specified
30	in this section. The attorney general shall develop standard forms, processes, and

1	forfeited, and sold or otherwise disposed of pursuant to an order of the court at the time of
2	sentencing and is subject to forfeiture in accordance with chapter 29-31.1 if the individual is in
3	violation of section 39-08-01, 39-08-01.2, or 39-08-01.4, or an equivalent ordinance and has-
4	been convicted of violating section 39-08-01 or an equivalent ordinance at least one other time
5	within the seven years preceding the violation.
6	SECTION 32. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 39-30-03 of the North Dakota-
7	Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
8	2. Seizure of property described in subsection 1 may be made by a member of a state or
9	local law enforcement agency without process:
10	a. If in accordance with any applicable law or regulation;
11	b. If the seizure is incident to inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;
12	c. If the seizure is incident to search made under a search warrant;
13	d. If the seizure is incident to a lawful arrest;
14	e. If the seizure is made pursuant to a valid consent to search;
15	f. If the property seized has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the
16	state in a criminal proceeding or in an injunction or forfeiture proceeding under
17	section 39-30-05chapter 29-31.1; or
18	g. If there are reasonable grounds to believe that the property is directly or indirectly
19	dangerous to health or safety.
20	SECTION 33. AMENDMENT. Section 39-30-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is
21	amended and reenacted as follows:
22	- 39-30-04. Forfeiture of property.
23	1. The following are subject to forfeiture unless obtained by theft, fraud, or conspiracy to
24	defraud and the rightful owner is known or can be identified and locatedin accordance
25	with chapter 29-31.1:
26	—————a. Any tool;
27	——————————————————————————————————————
28	c. Any instrumentality, including any motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, whether
29	owned or unowned by the person from whose possession or control it was
30	seized, which is used or possessed either in violation of section 39-30-02 or to
31	promote or facilitate a violation of section 39-30-02

1		brought within sixty days from the date of seizure except when the state's
2		attorney in the sound exercise of discretion determines that no forfeiture action
3		should be brought because of the rights of property owners, lienholders, or-
4		secured creditors, or because of exculpatory, exonerating, or mitigating facts and
5		circumstances.
6	————b.	The state's attorney shall give notice of the forfeiture proceeding by mailing a
7		copy of the complaint in the forfeiture proceeding to each person whose right,
8		title, or interest is of record maintained in the department of transportation, or any
9		other department of the state, or any other state or territory of the United States,
10		or of the federal government if the property is required to be registered in any
11		such department.
12	С.	Notice of the proceeding must be given to any other person as may appear, from
13		the facts and circumstances, to have any right, title, or interest in or to the
14		property.
15	d.	The owner of the property, or any person having or claiming right, title, or interest
16		in the property may within sixty days after the mailing of such notice file a verified-
17		answer to the complaint and may appear at the hearing on the action for
18		forfeiture.
19	е.	The state's attorney must show at a forfeiture hearing, by a preponderance of the
20		evidence, that the property was used in the commission of a violation of section-
21		39-30-02 or was used or possessed to facilitate such violation.
22	f.	The owner of property may show by a preponderance of the evidence that the
23		owner did not know, and did not have reason to know, that the property was to be
24		used or possessed in the commission of any violation or that any of the
25		exceptions to forfeiture are applicable.
26	g.	Unless the state's attorney makes the required showing, the court shall order the
27		property released to the owner. If the state's attorney has made such a showing,
28		the court may order:
29		(1) The property be destroyed by the agency that seized it or some other
30		agency designated by the court;

- 13. When a seized unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been held for sixty days or more after the notice to the department of transportation specified in subsection 12 has been given, the seizing agency, or its agent, shall cause the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part to be sold at public sale to the highest bidder. Notice of the time and place of sale must be posted in a conspicuous place for at least thirty days prior to the sale on the premises where the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has been stored.
- 14. If a seized unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle part has an apparent value of one thousand dollars or less, the seizing agency shall authorize the disposal of the motor vehicle or motor vehicle part, provided that no such disposition may be made less than sixty days after the date of seizure.
- 15. The proceeds of the public sale of an unidentifiable motor vehicle or motor vehicle partmust be deposited in the general fund of the state or other governmental unit afterdeduction of any reasonable and necessary towing and storage charges.
- -16.4. Seizing agencies shall utilize their best efforts to arrange for the towing and storing of motor vehicles and motor vehicle parts in the most economical manner possible. The owner of a motor vehicle or a motor vehicle part may not be required to pay more than the minimum reasonable costs of towing and storage.
 - 17. A seized motor vehicle or motor vehicle part that is neither forfeited nor unidentifiable must be held subject to the order of the court in which the criminal action is pending or, if a request for its release from such custody is made, until the state's attorney has notified the defendant or the defendant's attorney of such request and both the prosecution and defense have been afforded a reasonable opportunity for an examination of the property to determine its true value and to produce or reproduce, by photographs or other identifying techniques, legally sufficient evidence for introduction at trial or other criminal proceedings. Upon expiration of a reasonable time for the completion of the examination, which may not exceed fourteen days from the date of service upon the defense of the notice of request for return of property, the property must be released to the person making such request after satisfactory proof of the person's entitlement to possession. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon-

- application by either party with notice to the other, the court may order retention of the property if it determines that retention is necessary in the furtherance of justice.
- 18. When a seized vehicle is forfeited, restored to its owner, or disposed of as unidentifiable, the seizing agency shall retain a report of the transaction for a period of at least one year from the date of the transaction.
- 19. When an applicant for a certificate of title or salvage certificate presents to the department of transportation proof that the applicant purchased or acquired a motor vehicle at a public sale conducted pursuant to this section and such fact is attested to by the seizing agency, the department of transportation shall issue a certificate of title, salvage certificate for the motor vehicle upon receipt of the statutory fee, properly executed application for a certificate of title, or other certificate of ownership, and the affidavit of the seizing agency that a state-assigned number was applied for and affixed to the motor vehicle prior to the time that the motor vehicle was released by the seizing agency to the purchaser.

SECTION 34. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 39-30-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 1. The attorney general, any state's attorney, or anyan aggrieved person may institute civil proceedings against any person in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking relief from conduct constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter. If the plaintiff in such a proceeding proves the alleged violation, or its threat, by a preponderance of the evidence, any court of competent jurisdiction after due provision for the rights of innocent persons, shall grant relief by entering any appropriate order or judgment, including:
 - a. Ordering any defendant to be divested of any interest in any property in accordance with chapter 29-31.1;
 - b. Imposing reasonable restrictions upon the future activities or investments of any defendant, including prohibiting any defendant from engaging in the same type of endeavor as the defendant was engaged in previously;
 - c. Ordering the suspension or revocation of a license, permit, or prior approval granted by any public agency or any other public authority;

1	d. Ordering the surrender of the charter of a corporation organized under the laws-
2	of the state or the revocation of a certificate authorizing a foreign corporation to
3	conduct business within the state upon finding that the board of directors or a
4	managerial agent acting on behalf of the corporation, in conducting the affairs of
5	the corporation, has authorized or engaged in conduct made unlawful by this-
6	chapter and that, for the prevention of future criminal conduct, the public interest
7	requires the charter of the corporation be surrendered and the corporation
8	dissolved or the certificate revoked; or
9	e. Ordering the surrender of the certificate of organization of a limited liability
10	company organized under the laws of the state or the revocation of a certificate
11	authorizing a foreign limited liability company to conduct business within the state
12	upon finding that the board of governors or a managerial agent acting on behalf
13	of the limited liability company, in conducting the affairs of the limited liability
14	company, has authorized or engaged in conduct made unlawful by this chapter
15	and that, for the prevention of future criminal conduct, the public interest requires
16	that the certificate of organization of the limited liability company be surrendered
17	and the limited liability company dissolved or the certificate revoked.
18	SECTION 35. AMENDMENT. Section 40-11-13 of the North Dakota Century Code is
19	amended and reenacted as follows:
20	40-11-13. Fines and forfeitures for violation of ordinances paid into treasury.
21	All fines, and penalties, and forfeitures collected for offenses against the ordinances of a
22	city, including those fines, and penalties, and forfeitures collected as a result of a judgment of a
23	district court rendered pursuant to section 40-18-19, must be paid into the city's treasury at
24	suchthe time and in suchthe manner as may be prescribed by ordinance.
25	SECTION 36. AMENDMENT. Section 47-21.1-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is
26	amended and reenacted as follows:
27	47-21.1-04. Forfeiture and destruction of illegal recordings.
28	Any recording produced in violation of this chapter, and any equipment used in the
29	production thereof, shall be subject to forfeiture and destruction upon seizure by any state or
30	local law enforcement agency or officer thereofis subject to forfeiture in accordance with chapter
31	29-31.1.

28	aircraft retained as provided by law for official use by the state board of pharmacy
29	or a law enforcement agency.
30	e.d. For paying, at the discretion of the attorney general, overtime compensation to
31	agents of the bureau of criminal investigation incurred as a result of county where suchthe seizure was made to determine the issue of forfeiture. Such The

- action must be brought in the name of the state of North Dakota and must be prosecuted by the state's attorney, the tax commissioner, or the attorney general. The district court shall hear such the action as a court case and shall try and determine the issues of law and fact involved.
- 3. In case a judgment of forfeiture is entered, the tax commissioner, unless the judgment is stayed pending an appeal to the supreme court, as soon as convenient, shall destroy the forfeited property.
- 4. In case a demand for a judicial determination is made and no action is commenced as provided in this section, such property must be released by the tax commissioner and redelivered to the person entitled thereto.
- 5. In the event that no demand for judicial determination is made, the seized property must be deemed forfeited to the state by operation of law, and the tax commissioner shall destroy the same.
- 6.4. In case of the seizure of an automobile, truck, boat, airplane, conveyance, vehicle, or other means of transportation pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, the officer making the seizure shall file an inventory, and upon a demand for a judicial determination as provided in this section, the tax commissioner, within thirty days thereafter, shall commence an action in the district court of the county where such seizure was made to declare a forfeiture of such vehicle or other means of transportation, and such actionforfeiture proceedings must be heard and determined as other forfeiture actions instituted under this chapterin accordance with chapter 29-31.1.
- 7.5. Whenever the tax commissioner is satisfied that any person from whom propertycigarettes, equipment, or any other product taxed under this chapter is seized was acting in good faith and without intent to evade the revenue provisions of this chapter, the tax commissioner shall release the property seized without further legal proceedings.
- SECTION 39. AMENDMENT. Section 62.1-01-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

62.1-01-02. Forfeiture of dangerous weapon or firearm by person arrested and convicted of crime.

- felony or a misdemeanor involving violence or intimidation must be seized and, uponconviction and by motion, forfeited to the jurisdiction in which the arrest was made or the jurisdiction in which the charge arose. Except as provided in chapter 29-01 for stolen property, the forfeited dangerous weapon may be, pursuant to court order, soldat public auction, sold or traded to other law enforcement agencies or dealers, retained for use, or destroyed subject to forfeiture in accordance with chapter29-31.1.
- 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law; and subject to the duty to return firearmsto innocent owners under this section, section 29-31.1-02, and as provided in chapter29-01 for stolen property; all firearms, as defined in section 62.1-01-01, which areforfeited, recovered as stolen and unclaimed, or abandoned to any law enforcementagency of this state or a political subdivision of this state, including the game and fishdepartment, or that are otherwise acquired by the state or a political subdivision of thestate and are no longer needed, shall be disposed of as provided in this section.

 Except as provided in chapter 29-01 for stolen property, this section does not apply tofirearms that are seized or confiscated and disposed of under chapter 20.1-10.
- 3. a. Before the disposal of any firearm under this section, the agency with custody of the firearm shall use its best efforts to determine if the firearm has been lost by, or stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained from, an innocent owner and, if so, shall provide notification to the innocent owner of its custody of the firearm. An innocent owner may also notify the agency to claim a firearm.
 - b. After notification, the agency shall return the firearm to its innocent owner provided the owner submits sufficient proof of ownership, as determined by the agency, and pays the costs, if any, of returning the firearm to the innocent owner. Costs are limited to the actual costs of shipping to the innocent owner and associated costs from any transfer and background check fees charged when delivering the firearm to the innocent owner.

1	С.	If six months elapse after notification to the innocent owner of the custody of the
2		firearm by an agency and the innocent owner fails to bear the costs of return of
3		his or her firearm or fails to respond to the agency notification, or if six months
4		elapse after notice of a claim by an innocent owner and the innocent owner fails-
5		to bear the costs of return of the innocent owner's firearm or take away the
6		innocent owner's firearm, then the agency shall dispose of the firearm as
7		provided in this section.
8	4. a.	Except as provided in subdivision b of subsection 3 or subsection 5, the agency
9		shall dispose of the firearms that it receives under subsection 2 by sale at public
10		auction to persons that may lawfully possess a firearm and persons licensed as
11		firearms collectors, dealers, importers, or manufacturers under the provisions of
12		18 U.S.C. section 921 et seq., and authorized to receive such firearms under the
13		terms of the licenses.
14	——————————————————————————————————————	The auction required by this subsection may occur online on a rolling basis or at
15		live events, but in no event may the auction occur less frequently than once every
16		year during any time the agency has an inventory of saleable firearms. The
17		agency shall establish a procedure to notify persons of its auctions.
18	е.	The agency may not retain proceeds above that which are necessary to cover-
19		the costs of administering this subsection, with any surplus to be transferred to-
20		the general fund of the jurisdiction in which the agency is located, provided that
21		an agency may be reimbursed for any firearms formerly in use by the agency that
22		are sold under this section.
23	d.	Employees of the agency are not eligible to bid on the firearms at an auction
24		conducted under this subsection, and except for the amounts authorized under
25		subdivision c of this subsection, neither the agency nor its employees may retain
26		any proceeds from any sale required by this subsection, nor may the agency or
27		its employees retain any firearm required to be sold under this subsection.
28	— 5. а.	The requirements of subsection 4 do not apply to a firearm if there are not any
29		bids from eligible persons received within six months from when bidding opened
30		on the firearm, or if the agency director, sheriff, chief of police, or a designee of
31		the official certifies that the firearm is unsafe for use because of wear, damage,

1	age, or modification or because any federal or state law prohibits the sale or
2	distribution of the firearm. The agency director, sheriff, chief of police, or a
3	designee of the official, may transfer any of these firearms to the attorney
4	general's crime laboratory for training or experimental purposes, or to a museum-
5	or historical society that displays these items to the public and is lawfully eligible
6	to receive the firearm, or the firearm may be destroyed. The requirements of
7	subsection 4 do not apply to a firearm and an agency director, sheriff, chief of
8	police, or a designee of the official may destroy the firearm, if:
9	(1) The firearm was used in a violent crime, in an accidental shooting, or a
10	self-inflicted shooting resulting in the death of an individual;
11	(2) There is not a claim for the firearm by an innocent owner; and
12	(3) A family member of the deceased individual makes a written request for the
13	destruction of the firearm.
14	b. Agencies subject to the provisions of this subsection may establish a procedure
15	to destroy firearms and may expend necessary funds for that purpose.
16	6. All agencies subject to the provisions of this section shall keep records of the firearms
17	acquired and disposed offorfeited as provided in this section, as well as the proceeds
18	of the sales and the disbursement of the proceeds, and shall maintain these records
19	for not less than ten years from the date on which a firearm is disposed of or on which
20	a disbursement of funds is made, as the case may beforfeited.
21	7. Neither the state nor any political subdivision of the state, nor any of their officers,
22	agents, and employees, is liable to any person, including the purchaser of a firearm,
23	for personal injuries or damage to property arising from the sale or disposal of a
24	firearm under subsection 4 or 5 of this section, unless an officer, agent, or employee of
25	the state or political subdivision acted with gross negligence or recklessness.
26	8. As used in this section, the term "innocent owner" means a person who:
27	a. Did not beforehand know or in the exercise of ordinary care would not have
28	known of the conduct which caused that person's firearm to be forfeited, seized,
29	or abandoned to any law enforcement agency of the state or any political
30	subdivision of the state, including the game and fish department;

- 2. Forfeiture proceedings are separate and distinct from any related criminal action, and may not be initiated until the owner of the property has been convicted of or pled guilty to a criminal offense, or the individual has died, fled the jurisdiction, been deported by the United States government, been granted immunity or a reduced sentence in exchange for testifying or assisting a law enforcement investigation or prosecution, or has abandoned the property. As used in this subsection, "abandoned the property" or "fled the jurisdiction" means for a period of more than one year, the owner has not responded to any of the reasonable efforts made by the seizing agency to contact the owner or has not contacted the seizing agency.
- 3. Two or more law enforcement agencies and courts from different jurisdictions may coordinate, cooperate, and engage in interjurisdictional prosecution under this section.

SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 19-03.1-36.6 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

19-03.1-36.6. Hearing on contested forfeiture - Order releasing or forfeiting property.

- 1. If an answer is filed within the time limits in this chapter, the forfeiture proceedings must be set for hearing before the court. At the hearing, the state shall establish probable cause a valid seizure of the property to be forfeited, and clear and convincing evidence for instituting the forfeiture action following which any owner or person with a legal interest in the property to be forfeited who has filed an answer to the complaint has the burden of proving that the property to be forfeited is not subject to forfeiture under this chapter. If the court finds that the property is not subject to forfeiture under this chapter, the court shall order the property released to the owner or other person with a legal interest in the property as that person's right, title, or interest appears. The court shall order the property forfeited if it determines that such property or an interest therein is subject to forfeiture.
- 2. A court ordering property forfeited under subsection 1 may order the proper costs and expenses of the proceedings for forfeiture and sale, including reasonable expenses of seizure, maintenance of custody, advertising, sales, and court costs with any remaining proceeds to be deposited as provided in subsection 2 of section 29-27-02.1.

SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 19-03.1-36.7 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1	2.	Annually, each law enforcement agency shall compile the following information
2		regarding seizures and forfeitures pending or completed by the agency under this
3		chapter:
4		a. The types of property and dollar amount of the forfeited property;
5		b. The jurisdiction that received the property;
6		c. The total number of seizures of currency; and
7		d. The amount the court has ordered to be paid toward the costs and expenses of
8		the proceedings for forfeiture and sale under section 19-03.1-36.6.
9	3.	The attorney general may require the reporting of additional information not specified
10		in this section. The attorney general shall develop standard forms, processes, and
11		deadlines for electronic data entry for annual submission of forfeiture data by law
12		enforcement agencies.
13	4.	Each law enforcement agency shall file with the attorney general a report of the
14		information compiled under subsection 2 for the law enforcement agency and the
15		corresponding prosecutor. A law enforcement agency that did not engage in seizures
16		or forfeitures during the reporting period shall file a null report. The attorney general
17		shall compile the submissions and issue an aggregate report of all forfeitures in the
18		state.
19	5.	If a law enforcement agency fails to file a report within thirty days after the report is
20		due, the attorney general may compel compliance by any means until the report is
21		filed.
22	6.	The attorney general shall make available on the attorney general's website the
23		reports submitted by law enforcement agencies and the attorney general's aggregate
24		report. The reports must be updated annually.
25	SEC	CTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 29-27-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is
26	amende	d and reenacted as follows:
27	29-2	27-02.1. Disposition of statutory fees, fines, forfeitures, pecuniary penalties, and
28	bond fo	rfeitures.
29	1.	_Except as otherwise provided by law, all statutory fees, fines, forfeitures, and
30		pecuniary penalties prescribed for a violation of state laws, when collected, must be
31		paid into the treasury of the proper county to be added to the state school fund. When any bail bond or other property or money deposited as bail is forfeited to the state, the proceeds collected therefrom must be paid over to the proper state official and credited to the state general fund.

2. Funds obtained through civil asset forfeiture under section 19-03.1-36 must be paid into the attorney general assets forfeiture fund.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 54-12-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- The attorney general assets forfeiture fund consists of funds appropriated by the legislative assembly and additional funds obtained from moneys, assets, and proceeds seized and forfeited pursuant to section 19-03.1-36, amounts received through court proceedings as restitution, amounts remaining from the forfeiture of property after the payment of expenses for forfeiture and sale authorized by law, and amounts received from a multijurisdictional drug task force as defined in section 54-12-26. The amount of deposits into the fund which do not come from legislative appropriation or from a multijurisdictional drug task force and are not payable to another governmental entity may not exceed two five hundred thousand dollars within a biennium and any moneys in excess of that amount must be deposited in the general fund. The funds are appropriated, as a standing and continuing appropriation, to the attorney general for the following purposes:
 - For obtaining evidence for enforcement of any state criminal law or law relating to a. the control of drug abuse.
 - For repayment of rewards to qualified local programs approved under section b. 12.1-32-02.2, if the information that was reported to the qualified local program substantially contributed to forfeiture of the asset, and for paying, at the discretion of the attorney general, rewards for other information or assistance leading to a forfeiture under section 19-03.1-36.
 - For paying, at the discretion of the attorney general, any expenses necessary to seize, detain, inventory, safeguard, maintain, advertise, or sell property seized, detained, or forfeited pursuant to section 19-03.1-36, or of any other necessary expenses incident to the seizure, detention, or forfeiture of such property.

- d. For equipping, for law enforcement functions, forfeited vessels, vehicles, and aircraft retained as provided by law for official use by the state board of pharmacy or a law enforcement agency.
- e. For paying, at the discretion of the attorney general, overtime compensation to agents of the bureau of criminal investigation incurred as a result of investigations of violations of any state criminal law or law relating to the control of drug abuse.
- f. For paying matching funds required to be paid as a condition for receipt of funds from a federal government program awarding monetary grants or assistance for the investigation, apprehension, or prosecution of persons violating the provisions of chapter 19-03.1.
