- 1. Any individual, other than the driver of a motor vehicle under section 39-10-71, who willfully fails or refuses to stop or who otherwise flees or attempts to elude, in any manner, a pursuing peace officer who has a reasonable and articulable suspicion the individual has engaged in or is about to engage in criminal unlawful activity, when given a visual or audible signal to stop, is guilty of a class B misdemeanor for a first or second offense, and a class A misdemeanor for aany subsequent offense. A signal to stop complies with this section if the signal is perceptible to the personindividual and:
 - 4. a. If given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or siren, and the vehicle is appropriately marked showing it to be an official law enforcement vehicle; or
 - 2. b. If not given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or siren, and the officer is in uniform or prominently displays the officer's badge of office.
- A court shall dismiss a charge against an individual charged under subsection 1 if, after a hearing, the court determines the peace officer did not possess a reasonable and articulable suspicion to justify the initial seizure.
