- the child support resumes pursuant to subsection 1 or pursuant to the terms of a judgment or order described in subsection 2. A fee may not be charged for filing such an affidavit.
- 4. The clerk of courtchild support agency shall serve the affidavit by first-class mail upon the person owing the duty of support. If at any time thereafter the person owing the duty of support files a motion with the court, supported by that person's affidavit that the child is no longer enrolled in or attending high school or is no longer residing with the person to whom the duty of support is owed, the court shall determine if the child is enrolled in and attending high school and residing with the person to whom the duty of support is owed and shall enter an order accordingly.
- 5. This section applies to child support orders concerning children described in subsection 1 or 2, regardless of the date of entry of the order.
- 13 6. This section does not preclude the entry of an order for child support which continues 14 after the child reaches age eighteen, if the parties agree, or if the court determines the 15 support to be appropriate.
- 16 7. For purposes of this section:
- 17 a. A child is treated as being in school during summer vacation if the child was 18 enrolled in and attending school and did not graduate from high school at the end 19 of the school period immediately preceding the summer vacation; and
- b. A child who is currently enrolled in school is not considered to have graduated, even if all required coursework and examinations have been completed, until the ceremony is held by the school to commemorate the child's graduation.
- 23 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 14-09-09.29 of the North Dakota Century Code is
- 24 amended and reenacted as follows:
