SECTION 5. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - IMPACT OF ABORTION-RELATED RESTRICTIONS ON HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS.
During the 2021-22 interim, the legislative management shall consider studying the potential impact of legal restrictions relating to abortion for institutions under the control of the state board of higher education. The study must include:

1. The impact of potential laws preventing institutions of higher education from sponsoring, partnering with, applying for grants with, or providing a grant subaward to any person or organization that performs or promotes the performance of an abortion unless the abortion is necessary to prevent the death of the woman, or from participating in or sponsoring any program producing, distributing, publishing, disseminating, endorsing, or approving materials of any type or from any organization which, between normal childbirth and abortion, do not give preference, encouragement, and support to normal childbirth.
2. The potential impacts of the restrictions included in subsection 1 and chapter 14-02.3 on accreditation, academic programs, research, internships, donations, and other institution operations.
3. The potential conflicts between section 15-10.4-02 and the restrictions included in subsection 1 and chapter 14-02.3, including conflicts with academic freedom, free speech, activities of student organizations, and the use of state funds by student organizations."
