

As a nurse I do not want to have to take care of children who are dying due to not having been vaccinated. Especially when it could have been prevented. I do not agree and think immunizations should not be exempt from schools.