- 2 new subdivision to subsection 7 of section 57-38-30.3 of the North Dakota Century Code,
- 3 relating to a paid family medical leave program and an income tax credit for contributions paid-
- 4 into the paid family medical leave fund on behalf of eligible employees; to provide an-
- 5 appropriation; to provide for a transfer; and to provide an effective date.for an Act to provide for
- 6 a legislative management study regarding a paid family medical leave program.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- 8 SECTION 1. Chapter 34-06.2 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as
- 9 follows:

10 34-06.2-01. Definitions.

- 11 As used in this chapter:
- 12 "Eligible employee" means an employee who works for a single employer.
- 13 2. "Employee" means an individual, regardless of age, who performs part-time or 14 full-time services for an employer for remuneration.
- 15 3. "Employer" means a person within the state which engages the services of employees
   16 for remuneration. The term includes:
- 17 a. The state and its political subdivisions.
- 18 b. A public and quasi-public corporation in the state.
- 19 c. A partnership, limited liability company, association, and private corporation, 20 including a public service corporation.
- 21 4. "Family member" includes a child, stepchild, sibling, spouse, parent, step-parent,
- 22 grandparent, legal guardian of an eligible employee, grandchild, and relative of an
- 23 eligible employee living in the same home as the eligible employee.
- 24 5. "Fund" means the paid family medical leave fund.

1	6. "Wages" means renumeration for services to an employer by an employee, regardless
2	of source, including renumeration based on time, piece-rate, job, or incentive.
3
4	-1. The labor commissioner shall establish a division to administer a paid family medical
5	leave program under this chapter. The labor commissioner shall adopt rules and hire
6	staff, as the commissioner determines necessary, to administer the program under this
7	chapter.
8	2. Eligible employees and employers may contribute to the fund beginning July 1, 2022,
9	and eligible employees may withdraw from the fund for an eligible event under section
10	34-06.2-05 beginning July 1, 2023.
11
12	— There is created in the state treasury a special fund known as the paid family medical leave
13	fund. The fund consists of all moneys deposited in the fund from employers and employees for
14	contributions into the paid family medical leave program. The moneys in the fund may be
15	expended by the labor commissioner only to pay for wages of an eligible employee under the
16	program, and to pay for administrative costs associated with the administration of the program.
17
18	— The paid family medical leave program must:
19	—_1. Require an employer to annually notify all employees of the program and of the
20	employee's rights under the program.
21	 2. Allow eligible employees and employers to participate in the program.
22	a. Except as provided in subdivision b, an eligible employee who chooses to
23	participate in the program shall contribute to the fund six cents for every ten
24	dollars of wages earned for the benefit of the eligible employee to take leave for
25	an eligible event as described under section 34-06.2-05.
26	b. An employer who chooses to participate in the program may contribute all or a
27	portion of the contributions under subdivision a for eligible employees
28	participating in the program.
29	— 3. Allow sole proprietors and independent contractors, as determined under the
30	common-law test, to participate in the program. A sole proprietor or independent
31	contractor who chooses to participate in the program shall contribute to the fund six

1		cents for every ten dollars of wages earned for the benefit of the sole proprietor or
2		independent contractor to take leave for an eligible event as described under section
3		34-06.2-05.
4	 4.   	Allow an eligible employee to take leave for an eligible event as described under
5		section 34-06.2-05 if the eligible employee has accrued at least five hundred hours of
6		service before taking leave.
7	  	Provide for sixty-six percent of an eligible employee's average weekly wages, up to a
8		maximum of one thousand dollars per week.
9	  	Provide up to twelve calendar weeks of coverage per calendar year for an eligible
10		employee on leave under the program. An eligible employee may take leave on an
11		intermittent basis.
12	 	Allow an eligible employee to return to the position held with the employer before
13		taking leave, or an equivalent position with commensurate pay and benefits, upon the
14		conclusion of the leave period.
15	  	Allow an eligible employee to maintain the employee's existing benefits while taking
16		leave under the program.
17	   9.   	Allow an employer to require eligible employees to use up to two weeks of sick or
18		vacation leave before using leave under the program.
19	 	96.2-05. Eligible events.
20	  	An employer shall grant leave to an eligible employee participating in the program to
21		care for:
22		a. A serious physical or mental health condition of the eligible employee;
23		b. A serious physical or mental health condition of a family member;
24		c. A child during the first calendar year after the date of the child's birth, adoption, or
25		after the date the child's foster care began; or
26		d. The eligible employee's well being or a family member if the eligible employee or
27		family member was the victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or human
28		trafficking.
29	  	An employer may grant leave to an eligible employee participating in the program for
30		additional events as determined by the employer.

1	SEC	TION 1. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT STUDY - PAID FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE
2	PROGR	AMS.
3	1.	During the 2021-22 interim, the legislative management shall consider studying the
4		financial impact of implementing a state-facilitated paid family medical leave program
5		that builds on the federal Family Medical Leave Act, which provides job-protected but
6		unpaid time off to eligible individuals. The study must include:
7		a. A review of the feasibility and desirability of creating a state-facilitated paid family
8		medical leave program that has optional employer and employee participation
9		and provides replacement salary for eligible employees during an eligible event;
10		and
11		b. A review of the financial impact a paid family medical leave program would have
12		on North Dakota workers and businesses and the financial viability of a program.
13	2.	The legislative management shall contract with a private third party to conduct an
14		actuarial analysis and provide a report to the legislative management. The analysis
15		and report must consider the feasibility of multiple contribution and benefit levels, and
16		provide a review of state-facilitated paid leave programs that have been enacted in
17		other states.
18	3.	The legislative management shall report its findings and recommendations, together
19		with any legislation to implement the recommendations, to the sixty-eighth legislative
20		assembly.
