"SECTION 511. LEGISLATIVE MANAGEMENT REPORT - MERGER OF STATE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH INTO DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES.

During the 2021-22 interim, the executive director of the department of health and human services, in collaboration with the governor's office, shall provide regular reports to the legislative management regarding the status of the merger of the state department of health into the department of human services. The reports must include information regarding any agency structural changes being made, any efficiencies identified with the merger, how these structural changes and efficiencies better serve the residents of the state, and whether legislation is required to implement identified structural changes or efficiencies.

SECTION 512. APPLICATION. Upon the effective date of this Act, the department of health and human services shall begin the process of identifying efficiencies and unification of services and administration resulting from the merger of the state department of health into the department of human services."
