Senate Political Subdivisions Committee HB 1397
--

CHAIRMAN BURCKHARD AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS:

My name is Jack McDonald. I'm appearing on behalf of the North Dakota Newspaper and Broadcasters Associations. We object to this bill without our suggested amendment.

Redistricting only comes around once every 10 years. So it's kind of a big deal, right? Redistricting plans are incredibly complex and involve very detailed changes to the state's 47 legislative district, sometimes coming down to block to block changes in larger cities.

HB 1397 prevents North Dakota citizens, whose rights to legislative representation are seriously affected by these plans, the opportunity to review and respond, object, agree, offer amendments, etc., to these plans until they are presented to a meeting of Legislative Management or the Legislature.

Obviously there is not time in the maybe 15-20 minutes when the drafts are made available at a public meeting to prepare logical and meaningful objections and/or amendments to plans that took months of planning and computerized research to develop. And there would be no time to draft written testimony or prepare amendments or alternative plans.

This is similar to saying no one could see any bill during this session until the day of the hearing. That really wouldn't work very well.

The sponsor has said HB 1397 is exactly how it was handled in 2011. Well, yes and no. Exhibit 1- attached to my testimony - is engrossed HB 1267 from the 62nd Legislative Assembly that does not exempt the drafts.

Exhibit 2 shows the amendment from then Senate majority leader Sen. David Nething that added the exemption provisions, and Exhibit 3 shows the final version of the bill.

It's just not fair to hide these plans from your constituents. We believe a good compromise would be to make these proposed drafts public at least two weeks prior to the meeting at which they are presented. That's what our proposed amendment does.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I'd be happy to answer any questions.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ENGROSSED HB 1397

On page 1, line 23, after the word "until" insert "two weeks prior to when it will be"

On page 1, line 24, after the word "assembly" insert "and shall be made available to the public on the assembly's web page"

And renumber accordingly.
