"Leasing" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes acquiring goods or documents of title under a pre-existing lease contract but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

- v.w. "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.
- w.x. "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.

2. Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies subdivision b of subsection 1, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.
3. A writing~~record~~ is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under subdivision b of subsection 1 beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the writing~~record~~.
4. A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection 1, but which is valid in other respects, is enforceable:
 - a. If the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's business, and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement;
 - b. If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court that a lease contract was made, but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or
 - c. With respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.
5. The lease term under a lease contract referred to in subsection 4 is:
 - a. If there is a writing~~record~~ signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term so specified;
 - b. If the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court a lease term, the term so admitted; or
 - c. A reasonable lease term.

41-02.1-11. (2A-202) Final written expression - Parol or extrinsic evidence.

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writingrecord intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented by course;

1. Course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and by evidence
2. Evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writingrecord to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

SECTION 17. AMENDMENT. Section 41-02.1-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-02.1-12. (2A-203) Seals inoperative.

The affixing of a seal to a writingrecord evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter into a lease contract does not render the writingrecord a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer.

SECTION 18. AMENDMENT. Section 41-02.1-14 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-02.1-14. (2A-205) Firm offers.

An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed writingrecord that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or, if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed three months. Any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

SECTION 19. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 41-02.1-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

2. A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writingrecord may not be otherwise modified or rescinded, but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

1. "Negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a fixed amount of money, with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

 - b. Is payable on demand or at a definite time; and
 - c. Does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money, except that the promise or order may contain an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment, an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral, ~~or~~ a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor, a term that specifies the law that governs the promise or order, or an undertaking to resolve in a specified forum a dispute concerning the promise or order.

SECTION 22. AMENDMENT. Section 41-03-38 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-03-38. (3-401) Signature.

4. A person is not liable on an instrument unless the person signed the instrument or the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under section 41-03-39.

2. ~~A signature may be made manually or by means of a device or machine and by the use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, or by any word, mark, or symbol executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing.~~

SECTION 23. AMENDMENT. Section 41-03-66 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-03-66. (3-604) Discharge by cancellation or renunciation.

1. A person entitled to enforce an instrument may, with or without consideration, discharge the obligation of a party to pay the instrument by an intentional voluntary act such as surrender of the instrument to the party, destruction, mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument, cancellation or striking out of the party's signature, or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge or by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing rights against the party by a signed ~~writing~~record. The obligation of a party to pay a check is not discharged solely by destruction of the check in connection with a process in which information is extracted from the check and an image of the check is made and, subsequently, the information and image are transmitted for payment.
2. Cancellation or striking out of an endorsement under subsection 1 does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the endorsement.

SECTION 24. AMENDMENT. Section 41-04.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-04.1-03. (4A-103) Payment order - Definitions.

1. In this chapter:
 - a. "Beneficiary" means the person to be paid by the beneficiary's bank.
 - b. "Beneficiary's bank" means the bank identified in a payment order in which an account of the beneficiary is to be credited pursuant to the order or which otherwise is to make payment to the beneficiary if the order does not provide for payment to an account.
 - c. "Payment order" means an instruction of a sender to a receiving bank, transmitted orally, ~~electronically, or in writing~~ or in a record, to pay, or to cause another bank to pay, a fixed or determinable amount of money to a beneficiary if:

- (1) The instruction does not state a condition to payment to the beneficiary other than time of payment.
 - (2) The receiving bank is to be reimbursed by debiting an account of, or otherwise receiving payment from, the sender.
 - (3) The instruction is transmitted by the sender directly to the receiving bank or to an agent, funds-transfer system, or communication system for transmittal to the receiving bank.
- d. "Receiving bank" means the bank to which the sender's instruction is addressed.
- e. "Sender" means the person giving the instruction to the receiving bank.
2. If an instruction complying with subdivision a of subsection 1 is to make more than one payment to a beneficiary, the instruction is a separate payment order with respect to each payment.
 3. A payment order is issued when it is sent to the receiving bank.

SECTION 25. AMENDMENT. Section 41-04.1-09 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-04.1-09. (4A-201) Security procedure.

"Security procedure" means a procedure established by agreement of a customer and a receiving bank for the purpose of verifying that a payment order or communication amending or canceling a payment order is that of the customer or detecting error in the transmission or the content of the payment order or communication. A security procedure may impose an obligation on the receiving bank or the customer and may require the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying words or numbers, symbols, sounds, biometrics, encryption, callback procedures, or similar security devices. Comparison of a signature on a payment order or communication with an authorized specimen signature of the customer or requiring a payment order to be sent from a known electronic mail address, internet protocol address, or telephone number is not by itself a security procedure.

SECTION 26. AMENDMENT. Section 41-04.1-10 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-04.1-10. (4A-202) Authorized and verified payment orders.

1. A payment order received by the receiving bank is the authorized order of the person identified as sender if that person authorized the order or is otherwise bound by it under the law of agency.
2. If a bank and its customer have agreed that the authenticity of payment orders issued to the bank in the name of the customer as sender will be verified under a security procedure, a payment order received by the receiving bank is effective as the order of the customer, whether or not authorized, if the security procedure is a commercially reasonable method of providing security against unauthorized payment orders, and the bank proves that it accepted the payment order in good faith and in compliance with the bank's obligations under the security procedure and any written agreement or instruction of the customer, evidenced by a record, restricting acceptance of payment orders issued in the name of the customer. The bank is not required to follow an instruction that violates a written agreement with the customer, evidenced by a record, or notice of which is not received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the payment order is accepted.
3. Commercial reasonableness of a security procedure is a question of law to be determined by considering the wishes of the customer expressed to the bank, the circumstances of the customer known to the bank, including the size, type, and frequency of payment orders normally issued by the customer to the bank, alternative security procedures offered to the customer, and security procedures in general use by customers and receiving banks similarly situated. A security procedure is deemed to be commercially reasonable if the security procedure was chosen by the customer after the bank offered, and the customer refused, a security procedure that was commercially reasonable for that customer, and the customer expressly agreed in writing a record to be bound by any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in its name and accepted by the bank in compliance with the bank's obligations under the security procedure chosen by the customer.

4. In this chapter the term "sender" includes the customer in whose name a payment order is issued if the order is the authorized order of the customer under subsection 1 or is effective as the order of the customer under subsection 2.
5. This section applies to amendments and cancellations of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.
6. Except as provided in this section and in subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-11, rights and obligations arising under this section or section 41-04.1-11 may not be varied by agreement.

SECTION 27. AMENDMENT. Section 41-04.1-11 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-04.1-11. (4A-203) Unenforceability of certain verified payment orders.

1. If an accepted payment order is not, under subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-10, an authorized order of a customer identified as sender, but is effective as an order of the customer under subsection 2 of section 41-04.1-10, the following rules apply:
 - a. By express ~~written~~ agreement evidenced by a record, the receiving bank may limit the extent to which it is entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order.
 - b. The receiving bank is not entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order if the customer proves that the order was not caused, directly or indirectly, by a person entrusted at any time with duties to act for the customer with respect to payment orders or the security procedure or by a person who obtained access to transmitting facilities of the customer or who obtained, from a source controlled by the customer and without authority of the receiving bank, information facilitating breach of the security procedure, regardless of how the information was obtained or whether the customer was at fault. Information includes any access device, computer software, or the like.
2. This section applies to amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

SECTION 28. AMENDMENT. Subsection 3 of section 41-04.1-15 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. If a payment order described in subsection 2 is accepted, the originator's payment order described the beneficiary inconsistently by name and number, and the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by number as permitted by subdivision a of subsection 2, the following rules apply:
 - a. If the originator is a bank, the originator is obliged to pay its order.
 - b. If the originator is not a bank and proves that the person identified by number was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the originator is not obliged to pay its order unless the originator's bank proves that the originator, before acceptance of the originator's order, had notice that payment of a payment order issued by the originator might be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of an identifying or bank account number even if it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The originator's bank satisfied the burden of proof if it proves that the originator, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing record stating the information to which the notice relates.

SECTION 29. AMENDMENT. Subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 41-04.1-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- b. If the sender is not a bank and the receiving bank proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, had notice that the receiving bank might rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank even if it identifies a person different from the bank identified by name, the rights and obligations of the sender and the receiving bank are governed by subdivision a of subsection 2, as though the sender were a bank. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The receiving bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing record stating the information to which the notice relates.

SECTION 30. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-18 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. A payment order is rejected by the receiving bank by a notice of rejection transmitted to the sender orally, ~~electronically~~, or in writing a record. A notice of rejection need not use any particular words and is sufficient if it indicates that the receiving bank is rejecting the order or will not execute or pay the order. Rejection is effective when the notice is given if transmission is by a means that is reasonable in the circumstances. If notice of rejection is given by a means that is not reasonable, rejection is effective when the notice is received. If an agreement of the sender and receiving bank establishes the means to be used to reject a payment order, any means complying with the agreement is reasonable, and any means not complying is not reasonable unless no significant delay in receipt of the notice resulted from the use of the noncomplying means.

SECTION 31. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 41-04.1-19 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

1. A communication of the sender of a payment order canceling or amending the order may be transmitted to the receiving bank orally, ~~electronically~~, or in writing a record. If a security procedure is in effect between the sender and the receiving bank, the communication is not effective to cancel or amend the order unless the communication is verified pursuant to the security procedure or the bank agrees to the cancellation or amendment.

SECTION 32. AMENDMENT. Section 41-04.1-25 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-04.1-25. (4A-305) Liability for late or improper execution or failure to execute payment order.

1. If a funds transfer is completed but execution of a payment order by the receiving bank in breach of section 41-04.1-22 results in delay in payment to the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to pay interest to either the originator or the beneficiary of the funds transfer for the period of delay caused by the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection 3, additional damages are not recoverable.
2. If execution of a payment order by a receiving bank in breach of section 41-04.1-22 results in noncompletion of the funds transfer, failure to use an intermediary bank designated by the originator, or issuance of a payment order that does not comply with the terms of the payment order of the originator, the bank is liable to the originator for its expenses in the funds transfer and for incidental expenses and interest losses, to the extent not covered by subsection 1, resulting from the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection 3, additional damages are not recoverable.

3. In addition to the amounts payable under subsections 1 and 2, damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express ~~written~~ agreement of the receiving bank, evidenced by a record.
4. If a receiving bank fails to execute a payment order it was obliged by express agreement to execute, the receiving bank is liable to the sender for its expenses in the transaction and for incidental expenses and interest losses resulting from the failure to execute. Additional damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express ~~written~~ agreement of the receiving bank, evidenced by a record, but are not otherwise recoverable.
5. Reasonable attorney's fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection 1 or 2 is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim. If a claim is made for breach of an agreement under subsection 4 and the agreement does not provide for damages, reasonable attorney's fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection 4 is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.
6. Except as stated in this section, the liability of a receiving bank under subsections 1 and 2 may not be varied by agreement.

SECTION 33. AMENDMENT. Section 41-05-04 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-05-04. (5-104) Formal requirements.

A letter of credit, confirmation, advice, transfer, amendment, or cancellation may be issued in any form that is a signed record ~~and is authenticated:~~

1. ~~By a signature; or~~
2. ~~In accordance with the agreement of the parties or the standard practice referred to in subsection 5 of section 41-05-08.~~

SECTION 34. AMENDMENT. Section 41-05-16 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

41-05-16. (5-116) Choice of law and forum.

1. The liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction chosen by an agreement in the form of a record signed ~~or otherwise authenticated by the affected parties in the manner provided in section 41-05-04~~ or by a provision in the person's letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking. The jurisdiction whose law is chosen need not bear any relation to the transaction.
2. Unless subsection 1 applies, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser for action or omission is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the person is located. The person is considered to be located at the address indicated in the person's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the person is considered to be located at the address from which the person's undertaking was issued.
3. For the purpose of jurisdiction, choice of law, and recognition of interbranch letters of credit, but not enforcement of a judgment, all branches of a bank are considered separate juridical entities and a bank is considered to be located at the place where its relevant branch is considered to be located under ~~this subsection~~ 4.

- ~~3-4.~~ A branch of a bank is considered to be located at the address indicated in the branch's undertaking. If more than one address is indicated, the branch is considered to be located at the address from which the undertaking was issued.
5. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser is governed by any rules of custom or practice, such as the uniform customs and practice for documentary credits, to which the letter of credit, confirmation, or other undertaking is expressly made subject. If:
- a. This chapter would govern the liability of an issuer, nominated person, or adviser under subsection 1 or 2;
 - b. The relevant undertaking incorporates rules of custom or practice; and
 - c. There is conflict between this chapter and those rules as applied to that undertaking, those rules govern except to the extent of any conflict with the nonvariable provisions specified in subsection 3 of section 41-05-03.
- ~~4-6.~~ If there is conflict between this chapter and chapter 41-03, 41-04, 41-04.1, or 41-09, this chapter governs.
- ~~5-7.~~ The forum for settling disputes arising out of an undertaking within this chapter may be chosen in the manner and with the binding effect that governing law may be chosen in accordance with subsection 1.

- 2. A system satisfies subsection 1, and a person ~~is deemed to have~~has control of an electronic document of title, if the document is created, stored, and ~~assigned~~transferred in such a manner that:
 - a. A single authoritative copy of the document exists which is unique, identifiable, and, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions d, e, and f, unalterable;
 - b. The authoritative copy identifies the person asserting control as:
 - (1) The person to which the document was issued; or
 - (2) If the authoritative copy indicates that the document has been transferred, the person to which the document was most recently transferred;
 - c. The authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the person asserting control or its designated custodian;
 - d. Copies or amendments that add or change an identified ~~assignee~~transferee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the consent of the person asserting control;

3. A system satisfies subsection 1, and a person has control of an electronic document of title, if an authoritative electronic copy of the document, a record attached to or logically associated with the electronic copy, or a system in which the electronic copy is recorded:
- a. Enables the person readily to identify each electronic copy as either an authoritative copy or a nonauthoritative copy;
 - b. Enables the person readily to identify itself in any way, including by name, identifying number, cryptographic key, office, or account number, as the person to which each authoritative electronic copy was issued or transferred; and
 - c. Gives the person exclusive power, subject to subsection 4, to:
 - (1) Prevent others from adding or changing the person to which each authoritative electronic copy has been issued or transferred; and
 - (2) Transfer control of each authoritative electronic copy.
4. Subject to subsection 5, a power is exclusive under subdivision c of subsection 3, even if:
- a. The authoritative electronic copy, a record attached to or logically associated with the authoritative electronic copy, or a system in which the authoritative electronic copy is recorded limits the use of the document of title or has a protocol that is programmed to cause a change, including a transfer or loss of control; or
 - b. The power is shared with another person.
5. A power of a person is not shared with another person under subdivision b of subsection 4 and the person's power is not exclusive if:

5. Subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to limit the liability of a secured party to a person if, at the time the secured party obtains control of collateral that is a controllable account, controllable electronic record, or controllable payment intangible or at the time the security interest attaches to the collateral, whichever is later:
 - a. The person is a debtor or obligor; and
 - b. The secured party knows that the information in subdivision a of subsection 2 relating to the person is not provided by the collateral, a record attached to or logically associated with the collateral, or the system in which the collateral is recorded.

41-11-03. (A-201) Saving clause.

Except as provided in sections 41-11-04 through 41-11-09, a transaction validly entered before August 1, 2023, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from the transaction remain valid thereafter and may be terminated, completed, consummated, or enforced as required or permitted by law other than this title or, if applicable, this title, as though this Act had not taken effect.

41-11-04. (A-301) Saving clause.

1. Except as provided in sections 41-11-04 through 41-11-09, chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act and chapter 41-12 apply to a transaction, lien, or other interest in property, even if the transaction, lien, or interest was entered, created, or acquired before August 1, 2023.
2. Except as provided in subsection 3 and sections 41-11-05 through 41-11-09:
 - a. A transaction, lien, or interest in property that was validly entered, created, or transferred before August 1, 2023, and was not governed by this title, but would be subject to chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act or chapter 41-12 if it had been entered, created, or transferred after July 31, 2023, including the rights, duties, and interests flowing from the transaction, lien, or interest, remains valid after July 31, 2023; and

b. The transaction, lien, or interest may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by this Act or by the law that would apply if this Act had not taken effect.

3. This Act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before August 1, 2023.

41-11-05. (A-302) Security interest perfected before effective date.

1. A security interest that is enforceable and perfected immediately before August 1, 2023, is a perfected security interest under this Act if, on August 1, 2023, the requirements for enforceability and perfection under this Act are satisfied without further action.

2. If a security interest is enforceable and perfected immediately before August 1, 2023, but the requirements for enforceability or perfection under this Act are not satisfied on August 1, 2023, the security interest:

a. Is a perfected security interest until the earlier of the time perfection would have ceased under the law in effect immediately before August 1, 2023, or the adjustment date;

b. Remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest satisfies the requirements for enforceability under section 41-09-13, as amended by this Act, before the adjustment date; and

c. Remains perfected thereafter only if the requirements for perfection under this Act are satisfied before the time specified in subdivision a.

41-11-06. (A-303) Security interest unperfected before effective date.

A security interest that is enforceable immediately before August 1, 2023, but is unperfected at that time:

1. Remains an enforceable security interest until the adjustment date;

2. Remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under section 41-09-13, as amended by this Act, on August 1, 2023, or before the adjustment date; and

3. Becomes perfected:

a. Without further action, on August 1, 2023, if the requirements for perfection under this Act are satisfied before or at that time; or

b. When the requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

41-11-07. (A-304) Effectiveness of actions taken before effective date.

1. If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before August 1, 2023, and the action would have resulted in perfection of the security interest had the security interest become enforceable before August 1, 2023, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under this Act before the adjustment date. An attached security interest becomes unperfected on the adjustment date unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under this Act before the adjustment date.

2. The filing of a financing statement before August 1, 2023, is effective to perfect a security interest on August 1, 2023, to the extent the filing would satisfy the requirements for perfection under this Act.

3. The taking of an action before August 1, 2023, is sufficient for the enforceability of a security interest on August 1, 2023, if the action would satisfy the requirements for enforceability under this Act.

41-11-08. (A-305) Priority.

1. Subject to subsections 2 and 3, this Act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral.
2. Subject to subsection 3, if the priorities of claims to collateral were established before August 1, 2023, chapter 41-09 as in effect before August 1, 2023, determines priority.
3. On the adjustment date, to the extent the priorities determined by chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act modify the priorities established before August 1, 2023, the priorities of claims to Article 12 property and electronic money established before August 1, 2023, cease to apply.

41-11-09. (A-306) Priority of claims when priority rules of chapter 41-09 do not apply.

1. Subject to subsections 2 and 3, chapter 41-12 determines the priority of conflicting claims to Article 12 property when the priority rules of chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act do not apply.
2. Subject to subsection 3, when the priority rules of chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act do not apply and the priorities of claims to Article 12 property were established before August 1, 2023, law other than chapter 41-12 determines priority.
3. When the priority rules of chapter 41-09 as amended by this Act do not apply, to the extent the priorities determined by this Act modify the priorities established before August 1, 2023, the priorities of claims to Article 12 property established before August 1, 2023, cease to apply on the adjustment date.

SECTION 89. Chapter 41-12 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

41-12-01. (12-101) Title.

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code - Controllable Electronic Records.

41-12-02. (12-102) Definitions.

1. In this chapter:
 - a. "Controllable electronic record" means a record stored in an electronic medium that can be subjected to control under section 41-12-05. The term does not include a controllable account, a controllable payment intangible, a deposit account, an electronic copy of a record evidencing chattel paper, an electronic document of title, electronic money, investment property, or a transferable record.
 - b. "Qualifying purchaser" means a purchaser of a controllable electronic record or an interest in a controllable electronic record that obtains control of the controllable electronic record for value, in good faith, and without notice of a claim of a property right in the controllable electronic record.
 - c. "Transferable record" has the meaning provided for that term in:
 - (1) Section 201(a)(1) of the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act [Pub. L. 106-229; 114 Stat. 473; 15 U.S.C. Section 7021(a)(1)]; or
 - (2) Subsection 1 of section 9-16-15.

- d. "Value" has the meaning provided in subsection 1 of section 41-03-29, as if references in that subsection to an "instrument" were references to a controllable account, controllable electronic record, or controllable payment intangible.
2. The definitions in chapter 41-09 of "account debtor", "controllable account", "controllable payment intangible", "chattel paper", "deposit account", "electronic money", and "investment property" apply to this chapter.
3. Chapter 41-01 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this title.

41-12-03. (12-103) Relation to chapter 41-09 and consumer laws.

1. If there is conflict between this chapter and chapter 41-09, chapter 41-09 governs.
2. A transaction subject to this chapter is subject to any applicable rule of law that establishes a different rule for consumers and title 6, sections 13-04.1-09 through 13-04.1-09.3, and chapters 13-05, 13-08, 13-10, and 47-14.

41-12-04. (12-104) Rights in controllable account, controllable electronic record, and controllable payment intangible.

1. This section applies to the acquisition and purchase of rights in a controllable account or controllable payment intangible, including the rights and benefits under subsections 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 of a purchaser and qualifying purchaser, in the same manner this section applies to a controllable electronic record.
2. To determine whether a purchaser of a controllable account or a controllable payment intangible is a qualifying purchaser, the purchaser obtains control of the account or payment intangible if it obtains control of the controllable electronic record that evidences the account or payment intangible.
3. Except as provided in this section, law other than this chapter determines whether a person acquires a right in a controllable electronic record and the right the person acquires.
4. A purchaser of a controllable electronic record acquires all rights in the controllable electronic record that the transferor had or had power to transfer, except that a purchaser of a limited interest in a controllable electronic record acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased.
5. A qualifying purchaser acquires its rights in the controllable electronic record free of a claim of a property right in the controllable electronic record.
6. Except as provided in subsections 1 and 5 for a controllable account and a controllable payment intangible or law other than this chapter, a qualifying purchaser takes a right to payment, right to performance, or other interest in property evidenced by the controllable electronic record subject to a claim of a property right in the right to payment, right to performance, or other interest in property.
7. An action may not be asserted against a qualifying purchaser based on both a purchase by the qualifying purchaser of a controllable electronic record and a claim of a property right in another controllable electronic record, whether the action is framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory.
8. Filing of a financing statement under chapter 41-09 is not notice of a claim of a property right in a controllable electronic record.

41-12-05. (12-105) Control of controllable electronic record.

1. A person has control of a controllable electronic record if the electronic record, a record attached to or logically associated with the electronic record, or a system in which the electronic record is recorded:
 - a. Gives the person:
 - (1) Power to avail itself of substantially all the benefit from the electronic record; and
 - (2) Exclusive power, subject to subsection 2, to:
 - (1) Prevent others from availing themselves of substantially all the benefit from the electronic record; and
 - (2) Transfer control of the electronic record to another person or cause another person to obtain control of another controllable electronic record as a result of the transfer of the electronic record; and
 - b. Enables the person readily to identify itself in any way, including by name, identifying number, cryptographic key, office, or account number, as having the powers specified in subsection a.
2. Subject to subsection 3, a power is exclusive under paragraph 2 of subdivision a of subsection 1 even if:
 - a. The controllable electronic record, a record attached to or logically associated with the electronic record, or a system in which the electronic record is recorded limits the use of the electronic record or has a protocol programmed to cause a change, including a transfer or loss of control or a modification of benefits afforded by the electronic record; or
 - b. The power is shared with another person.
3. A power of a person is not shared with another person under subdivision b of subsection 2 and the person's power is not exclusive if:
 - a. The person can exercise the power only if the power also is exercised by the other person; and
 - b. The other person:
 - (1) Can exercise the power without exercise of the power by the person; or
 - (2) Is the transferor to the person of an interest in the controllable electronic record or a controllable account or controllable payment intangible evidenced by the controllable electronic record.
4. If a person has the powers specified in paragraph 2 of subdivision a of subsection 1, the powers are presumed to be exclusive.
5. A person has control of a controllable electronic record if another person, other than the transferor to the person of an interest in the controllable electronic record or a controllable account or controllable payment intangible evidenced by the controllable electronic record:
 - a. Has control of the electronic record and acknowledges that it has control on behalf of the person; or
 - b. Obtains control of the electronic record after having acknowledged that it will obtain control of the electronic record on behalf of the person.

6. A person that has control under this section is not required to acknowledge that it has control on behalf of another person.
7. If a person acknowledges that it has or will obtain control on behalf of another person, unless the person otherwise agrees or law other than this chapter or chapter 41-09 otherwise provides, the person does not owe any duty to the other person and is not required to confirm the acknowledgment to any other person.

41-12-06. (12-106) Discharge of account debtor on controllable account or controllable payment intangible.

1. An account debtor on a controllable account or controllable payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying:
 - a. The person having control of the controllable electronic record that evidences the controllable account or controllable payment intangible; or
 - b. Except as provided in subsection 2, a person that formerly had control of the controllable electronic record.
2. Subject to subsection 4, the account debtor may not discharge its obligation by paying a person that formerly had control of the controllable electronic record if the account debtor receives a notification that:
 - a. Is signed by a person that formerly had control or the person to which control was transferred;
 - b. Reasonably identifies the controllable account or controllable payment intangible;
 - c. Notifies the account debtor that control of the controllable electronic record that evidences the controllable account or controllable payment intangible was transferred;
 - d. Identifies the transferee, in any reasonable way, including by name, identifying number, cryptographic key, office, or account number; and
 - e. Provides a commercially reasonable method by which the account debtor is to pay the transferee.
3. After receipt of a notification that complies with subsection 2, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying in accordance with the notification and may not discharge the obligation by paying a person that formerly had control.
4. Subject to subsection 8, notification is ineffective under subsection 2:
 - a. Unless, before the notification is sent, the account debtor and the person that, at that time, had control of the controllable electronic record that evidences the controllable account or controllable payment intangible agree in a signed record to a commercially reasonable method by which a person may furnish reasonable proof that control has been transferred;
 - b. To the extent an agreement between the account debtor and seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this chapter; or
 - c. At the option of the account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to:
 - (1) Divide a payment;
 - (2) Make less than the full amount of an installment or other periodic payment; or

- (3) Pay any part of a payment by more than one method or to more than one person.
5. Subject to subsection 8, if requested by the account debtor, the person giving the notification under subsection 2 seasonably shall furnish reasonable proof, using the method in the agreement referred to in subdivision a of subsection 4, that control of the controllable electronic record has been transferred. Unless the person complies with the request, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying a person that formerly had control, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection 2.
 6. A person furnishes reasonable proof under subsection 5 that control has been transferred if the person demonstrates, using the method in the agreement referred to in subdivision a of subsection 4, that the transferee has the power to:
 - a. Avail itself of substantially all the benefit from the controllable electronic record;
 - b. Prevent others from availing themselves of substantially all the benefit from the controllable electronic record; and
 - c. Transfer the powers specified in subdivisions a and b to another person.
 7. Subject to subsection 8, an account debtor may not waive or vary its rights under subdivision a of subsection 4 and subsection 5 or its option under subdivision c of subsection 4.
 8. This section is subject to law other than this chapter which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

41-12-07. (12-107) Governing law.

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, the local law of a controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by this chapter.
2. For a controllable electronic record that evidences a controllable account or controllable payment intangible, the local law of the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by section 41-12-06 unless an effective agreement determines that the local law of another jurisdiction governs.
3. The following rules determine a controllable electronic record's jurisdiction under this section:
 - a. If the controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically associated with the controllable electronic record and readily available for review, expressly provides that a particular jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of this chapter or title, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.
 - b. If subdivision a does not apply and the rules of the system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are readily available for review and expressly provide that a particular jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction for purposes of this chapter or title, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.
 - c. If subdivisions a and b do not apply and the controllable electronic record, or a record attached to or logically associated with the controllable electronic record and readily available for review, expressly provides that the controllable electronic record is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.
 - d. If subdivisions a, b, and c do not apply and the rules of the system in which the controllable electronic record is recorded are readily available for review and expressly provide that the controllable electronic record or the system is governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.

- e. If subdivisions a through d do not apply, the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction is the District of Columbia.
- 4. If subdivision e of subsection 3 applies and this chapter is not in effect in the District of Columbia without material modification, the governing law for a matter covered by this chapter is the law of the District of Columbia as though Article 12 were in effect in the District of Columbia without material modification. In this subsection, "Article 12" means Article 12 of Uniform Commercial Code Amendments (2022).
- 5. To the extent subsections 1 and 2 provide that the local law of the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction governs a matter covered by this chapter, that law governs even if the matter or a transaction to which the matter relates does not bear any relation to the controllable electronic record's jurisdiction.
- 6. The rights acquired under section 41-12-04 by a purchaser or qualifying purchaser are governed by the law applicable under this section at the time of purchase.
