- 5 (1) Written evidence of ownership of the catalytic converter purchased from the 6 person, including a bill of sale, a receipt for repair of the vehicle the catalytic
7 converter was removed from, or the title, registration, or other ownership 8 documentation for the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was 9 removed; or
- 10 (2) A signed statement of ownership by the seller.
- 11 2. Every scrap metal dealer shall keep the business records required under this section 12 at the business premises of the scrap metal dealer or other reasonably available
13 location within this state for seven years after the date of each purchase or transaction 14 for which business records are required under this section.
- 15 3. A scrap metal dealer may not pay cash for scrap metal purchases or transactions over 16 one thousand dollars or for any purchase or transaction over one hundred dollars for a 17 detached used catalytic converter, but may only pay by check or electronic transfer.
- 18 4. Each scrap metal dealer's premises must be kept open during regular business hours 19 for inspection by a law enforcement officer and each scrap metal dealer's business 20 records and business inventory must be made available for inspection by a law 21 enforcement officer at all times during reasonable business hours or at reasonable 22 times if ordinary hours of business are not kept. All business records required under 23 this section for transactions involving a detached used catalytic converter must be 24 made available for inspection by a law enforcement officer upon request.
- 25 5. Before a law enforcement officer may conduct an inspection under this section, the 26 law enforcement officer shall inform the scrap metal dealer that the individual is a law 27 enforcement officer and shall inform the scrap metal dealer of the purpose of the 28 inspection. The law enforcement officer shall comply with all reasonable and 29 customary safety requirements of the scrap metal dealer on the business premises.

1 6. The scrap metal dealer may require a law enforcement officer to sign an inspection log 2 that includes the officer's name and serial or badge number and the date, time, and 3 purpose for the inspection.

4 7. The provisions of this chapter shall take precedence over and supersede any local 5 ordinance adopted by a political subdivision that regulates scrap metal transactions.
