13 amended and reenacted as follows:

14 25-03.1-25. Detention or hospitalization - Emergency procedure.

- 15 1. When a peace officer, physician either in person or directing an emergency medical 16 services professional, psychiatrist, physician assistant, psychologist, advanced 17 practice registered nurse, or mental health professional has reasonable cause to 18 believe that an individual is a person requiring treatment and there exists a serious risk 19 of harm to that individual, others, or property of an immediate nature that 20 considerations of safety do not allow preliminary intervention by a magistrate, the 21 peace officer, physician either in person or directing an emergency medical services
22 professional, psychiatrist, physician assistant, psychologist, advanced practice
23 registered nurse, or mental health professional, using the screening process set forth 24 in section 25-03.1-04, may cause the individual to be taken into custody and detained 25 at a treatment facility as provided in subsection 3, and subject to section 25-03.1-26, 26 except that if emergency conditions exist that prevent the immediate conveyance of 27 the individual to a public treatment facility, a private facility that has adequate 28 resources and capacity to hold that individual may hold the individual in anticipation of 29 conveyance to a public treatment facility for up to twenty-three hours:
- 30 a. Without conducting an immediate examination required under section 31 25-03.1-26; and

- 1           b. Without following notice and hearing requirements for a transfer to another 2           treatment facility required under subsection 3 of section 25-03.1-34.
- 3        2. If a petitioner seeking the involuntary treatment of a respondent requests that the 4        respondent be taken into immediate custody and the magistrate, upon reviewing the 5        petition and accompanying documentation, finds probable cause to believe that the 6        respondent is a person requiring treatment and there exists a serious risk of harm to 7        the respondent, others, or property if allowed to remain at liberty, the magistrate may 8        enter a written order directing that the respondent be taken into immediate custody
9        and be detained as provided in subsection 3 until the preliminary or treatment hearing, 10       which must be held no more than seven days after the date of the order.
- 11       3. Detention under this section may be:
- 12       a. In a treatment facility where the director or superintendent must be informed of 13       the reasons why immediate custody has been ordered. The facility may provide 14       treatment that is necessary to preserve the respondent's life or to appropriately 15       control behavior by the respondent which is likely to result in physical injury to 16       self or to others if allowed to continue, but may not otherwise provide treatment to 17       the respondent without the respondent's consent; or
- 18       b. In a public or private facility in the community which is suitably equipped and 19       staffed for the purpose. Detention in a jail or other correctional facility may not be 20       ordered except in cases of actual emergency when no other secure facility is 21       accessible, and then only for a period of not more than twenty-four hours and 22       under close supervision.
- 23       4. Immediately upon being taken into custody, the individual must be advised of the 24       purpose of custody, of the intended uses and possible effects of any evaluation that 25       the individual undergoes, and of the individual's rights to counsel and to a preliminary 26       or treatment hearing.
- 27       5. Upon arrival at a facility the peace officer, physician, physician assistant, psychiatrist, 28       psychologist, advanced practice registered nurse, or mental health professional who 29       conveyed the individual or who caused the individual to be conveyed shall complete
30       an application for evaluation and shall deliver a detailed written report from the peace
31       officer, physician, physician assistant, psychiatrist, psychologist, advanced practice

1 registered nurse, or the mental health professional who caused the individual to be 2 conveyed. The written report must state the circumstances under which the individual
3 was taken into custody. The report must allege in detail the overt act that constituted 4 the basis for the beliefs that the individual is a person requiring treatment and that,
5 because of that individual's condition, there exists a serious risk of harm to that 6 individual, others, or property if the individual is not immediately detained.

7 6. A peace officer maintains the peace officer's power of arrest, detention, and transport,
8 throughout the entire state during a transport or detention in accordance with this 9 section.

14 criminal justice agency of the state or a political subdivision to enforce the law or to 15 conduct or engage in investigations or prosecutions for violations of law.

16 2. If a peace officer is transporting an individual who is under arrest or is being detained 17 under chapter 25-03.1, the peace officer's authority extends throughout the entire 18 state, as follows:

19 a. After arrest, until the individual is delivered into the custody of the nearest jail, 20 regional corrections center or correctional facility as defined by chapter 12-44.1,
21 including while the individual is being treated for a medical condition or infirmity;

22 b. While an individual is being detained during pretrial, in any jail, regional 23 corrections center or correctional facility and, is being transported for treatment 24 for a medical condition or other physical or mental infirmity that occurred while 25 the individual was in custody;

26 c. While the peace officer is detaining an individual under chapter 25-03.1 and the 27 individual is being transported to a treatment facility for evaluation or treatment;

28 d. While the peace officer is detaining or transporting an individual pursuant to an 29 order issued by the district court; and

1           e. While the peace officer is transporting an individual convicted under chapter

3           of confinement as ordered by the district court.

4           SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 40-20-05 of the North Dakota Century Code is 5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6           40-20-05. Chief of police and police officers - Powers and duties - Hot pursuit.

9           under the chief's supervision. Within the city limits, and for a distance of one and 10          one-half miles [2.41 kilometers] in all directions outside the city limits, the police
11          officers of the city shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of peace officers 12          as defined and prescribed by the laws of this state.
- 13          2. A police officer in "hot pursuit" may continue beyond the one and one-half mile [2.41
14          kilometers] limit to make an arrest, in obedience to a warrant or without a warrant 15          under the conditions of section 29-06-15, if obtaining the aid of peace officers having 16          jurisdiction beyond that limit would cause a delay permitting escape. As used in this 17          subsection, "hot pursuit" means the immediate pursuit of an individual endeavoring to 18          avoid arrest. The jurisdiction limits in subsection 1 do not apply to a police officer
