Section 3 of engrossed SB 2391 allows individuals who purchase or rehabilitates single-family residential property for the individual's primary place of residence to exempt up to $10,000 of personal income tax liability for up to 8 years instead of 5 years, beginning with the date of purchase, lease, or completion of rehabilitation.

on income derived from the business or investment locations within the zone for up to 8 years instead of 5 years, beginning with the date of purchase, lease, or completion of rehabilitation.

Section 5 of engrossed SB 2391 adds a provision to the renaissance fund organization that if the total amount of credits allowed under this section have been claimed, the renaissance fund organization allowance must terminate, and additional credits may not be made available for investments in a renaissance fund organization.

5 - Revenues Detail

For information shown under state fiscal effect in 1 or 2, please explain the revenue amounts. Provide detail, when appropriate, for each revenue type and fund affected and any amounts included in the executive budget.

If enacted, section 3 of engrossed SB 2391 may create a decrease in the general fund by allowing taxpayers additional time to claim the renaissance zone fund income exemption. The reduction in revenue is dependent on several undetermined factors. This includes the cities' actions to establish neighborhood zones, the level and type of investment activity in those zones, the number of taxpayers that claim the exemptions and credits, and finally, the taxpayers' liabilities.

Due to these factors, the Office of State Tax Commissioner is unable to provide a reliable estimate for this revenue reduction amount.

6 - Expenditures Detail

For information shown under state fiscal effect in 1 or 2, please explain the expenditure amounts. Provide detail, when appropriate, for each agency, line item, and fund affected and the number of FTE positions affected.

7 - Appropriations Detail

Explain the relationship between the amounts shown for expenditures and appropriations. Indicate whether the appropriation or a part of the appropriation is included in the executive budget or relates to a continuing appropriation.
