

HB 1301

Medical procedures should be between the patient, their doctor and their parents if the patient is a minor. The state should not be involved in medical decisions. This legislation is discriminatory against individuals that are trying to be who their spirit calls them to be.