

North Dakota Cities Classifying E-Cigarette's as Tobacco Products

North Dakota has a total of 14 cities that classify ENDS (Electronic Nicotine Delivery Devices as tobacco products in their city ordinances. This is important because there is extensive evidence that e-cigarette use increases the risk of using combustible tobacco –a cause for concern with over half of North Dakota youth having tried ENDS.

Barnes
Valley City

Cass
Fargo
Harwood

Grand Forks
Grand Forks

Rolette
St. John

Towner
Cando

Burleigh
Bismarck
Lincoln

Kindred
Mapleton

McKenzie
Watford City

Richland
Wahpeton

Williams
Williston

Stark
Dickinson

For more information about U.S. E-Cigarette Regulations visit:
<https://www.publichealthlawcenter.org/resources/us-e-cigarette-regulations-50-state-review>

Public Health
Prevent. Promote. Protect.
Bismarck-Burleigh Public Health