

Please vote yes on SB2362 Although the vast majority of people in North Dakota buckle up, there are still some who refuse or forget. Nearly half of people who die in crashes are not belted. Belt laws increase belt use, especially with publicized enforcement.