

It is becoming increasingly difficult to find locations to place bees. If this law is enacted, I will lose more than 90 percent of my 40 registered bee yards. That will put me out of business.

What happens in a wet year? No farmer wants us to drive one quarter mile on wet, muddy fields to place our bees.

You might as well just outlaw beekeeping.

Ron Klemin