House Concurrent Resolution 3021
Senate Human Services Committee
Rep. Gretchen Dobervich
March 22, 2023

Good Morning Madame Chair and Members of the Senate Human Services Committee. For the record my name is Representative Gretchen Dobervich and I work for the people of District 11 in ND.

House Concurrent Resolution 3021 requests Legislative Management to consider studying whether there is adequate services in North Dakota to serve people in North Dakota living with a brain injury. The study would assess current services, gaps in treatment and care, identify potential approaches to addressing these gaps, sources of funding to pay for the services needed to fill these gaps in treatment and care, and develop evaluation methodology for assessing the efficacy of current and future programs and services for North Dakotans living with brain injury to assure that services are meeting needs and have a good return on investment.

Please consider voting Do Pass on House Concurrent Resolution 3021 in the effort to best meet the needs of North Dakotans living with brain injury.
