

A centralized banking digital currency is not safer for the people, nor does it provide a better way to grow the economy, Total control of personal financing belong with the individual, not the government, at each and every level.

Do not vote for the digital dollar, centralization of economic power with the government, or for the removal of cash as legal currency.