

There are so few wild horses remaining in the country and so many of us love them. We want them protected. I strongly oppose the removal of any of the wild horses located in Theodore Roosevelt National Park. They're national treasures. Please—redesignate the wild horses as wildlife, not livestock. And protect them. For all our sakes. Thank you.