

I strongly oppose the removal of any of the wild horses located in Theodore Roosevelt National Park. The wild horses in TRNP are the biggest draw for visitors to the park

Local economies in towns around TRNP will suffer with the loss of tourist visits if the wild horses are removed .