

This is going to be quick and simple.

1. Do you believe in honest and accountable checks and balances?

I believe in transparency in government and this can ONLY be achieved by having an independent Auditor.

Any politician that votes for this bill must, in my mind, be against the transparency and accountability that ND government says it contains and promotes.