

Chairman Wobbema and members of the Senate Workforce Committee. My name is Kalee Werner, Primary Care Office Director within the North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Public Health. I am available online to answer any questions you may have related to Senate Bill 2287, relating to the health care professional student loan repayment program.