- 3 54-52.6-01, and subsection 1 of section 54-52.6-02.2 of the North Dakota Century Code,
- 4 relating to administering the public employees retirement system.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

6 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Subsection 23 of section 54-52-01 of the North Dakota Century
7 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 8 23. "Temporary employee" means an employee who is not eligible to participate as a
- 9 permanent employee, who is at least eighteen years old and not actively contributing 10 to another employer-sponsored pensionretirement fund, and, if employed by a school
- 11 district, occupies a noncertified teacher's position.

12 SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is 13 amended and reenacted as follows:

14 54-52-17. Formulation of plan. (Retroactive application - See note)

15 Participating members shall receive benefits according to this section and according to 16 rules adopted by the board, not inconsistent with this chapter. No personAn individual is not

17 entitled to receive a prior service benefit if the personindividual was not continuously employed

18 by a governmental unit in North Dakota for a period of not less than two years immediately prior

- 19 tobefore eligibility for retirement.
- 20 1. Participating members shall receive credit for full-time employment or its equivalent
- 21 from the date they attain eligibility until their normal retirement date, postponed

1 Retirement benefits are calculated from the participating member's final average 2. 2 salary, which is the average of the highest salary received by the member for any 3 thirty-six months employed during the last one hundred twenty months of employment. 4 For members who terminate employment on or after August 1, 2010, final average 5 salary is the average of the highest salary received by the member for any thirty-six 6 months employed during the last one hundred eighty months of employment. For 7 members who terminate employment between July 31, 2005, and August 1, 2010, final 8 average salary is the average of the highest salary received by the member for any 9 thirty-six months employed during the period for which the board has appropriate and 10 accurate salary records on the board's electronic database, but that period may not be 11 more than the last one hundred eighty months of employment. For members who 12 terminate employment after December 31, 2019, final average salary is the higher of 13 the final average salary calculated on December 31, 2019, or the average salary 14 earned in the three highest periods of twelve consecutive months employed during the 15 last one hundred eighty months of employment. Months without earnings are excluded 16 for the purpose of computing an average. If the participating member has worked for 17 less than thirty-six months at the normal retirement date, the final average salary is the 18 average salary for the total months of employment. 19 3. Retirement dates are defined as follows: 20 Normal retirement date, except for a national guard security officer or firefighter, a a. 21 firefighter employed by a political subdivision, a peace officer employed by the 22 state, or a peace officer or correctional officer employed by a political subdivision, 23 is: 24 (1) The first day of the month next following the month in which the member

7		h.	Disa	bility retirement date is the first day of the month after a member becomes
8			perm	nanently and totally disabled, according to medical evidence called for under
9			the r	ules of the board, and has completed at least one hundred eighty days of
10			eligik	ole employment. For supreme and district court judges, permanent and total
11			disal	bility is based solely on a judge's inability to perform judicial duties arising out
12			of ph	nysical or mental impairment, as determined pursuant to rules adopted by the
13			boar	d or as provided by subdivision a of subsection 3 of section 27-23-03.
14			(1)	A member is eligible to receive disability retirement benefits only if the 15				member became disabled during the period of eligible employment and
16				applies for disability retirement benefits within twelve months of the date the
17				member terminates employment.
18			(2)	A member is eligible to continue to receive disability benefits as long as the
19				permanent and total disability continues and the member submits the
20				necessary documentation and undergoes medical testing required by the
21				board, or for as long as the member participates in a rehabilitation program
22				required by the board, or both. If the board determines a member no longer
23				meets the eligibility definition, the board may discontinue the disability
24				retirement benefit. The board may pay the cost of any medical testing or 25				rehabilitation services the board deems necessary and these payments are
26				appropriated from the retirement fund for those purposes. A member's
27				receipt of disability benefits under this section is limited to receipt from the

1 employment, the board shall pay the member's account balance to the member's 2 designated beneficiary as provided in this subsection. If the member has designated 3 an alternate beneficiary with the surviving spouse's written consent, the board shall 4 pay the member's account balance to the named beneficiary. If the member has 5 named more than one primary beneficiary, the board shall pay the member's account 6 balance to the named primary beneficiaries in the percentages designated by the 7 member or, if the member has not designated a percentage for the beneficiaries, in 8 equal percentages. If one or more of the primary beneficiaries has predeceased the 9 member, the board shall pay the predeceased beneficiary's share to the remaining 10 primary beneficiaries. If any beneficiary survives the member, yet dies before 11 distribution of the beneficiary's share, the beneficiary must be treated as if the 12 beneficiary predeceased the member. If there are no remaining primary beneficiaries, 13 the board shall pay the member's account balance to the contingent beneficiaries in 14 the same manner. If there are no remaining designated beneficiaries, the board shall 15 pay the member's account balance to the member's estate. If the member has not 16 designated an alternate beneficiary or the surviving spouse is the beneficiary, the 17 surviving spouse of the member may select a form of payment as follows: 18 a. If the member was a supreme or district court judge, the surviving spouse may 19 select one of the following optional forms of payment: 20 A lump sum payment of the member's retirement account as of the date of (1) 21 death. 22 Payments as calculated for the deceased member as if the member was of (2) 23 normal retirement age at the date of death, payable until the spouse dies. 24 b. The surviving spouse of all other members may select one of the following 25 options: 26 (1) A lump sum payment of the member's retirement account as of the date of 27 death. 28 Payment of a monthly retirement benefit equal to fifty percent of the (2) 29 deceased member's accrued single life retirement benefits until the spouse

- 11 If a member not coming under the provisions of subsection 6 terminates employment 7. 12 because of death, permanent and total disability, or any voluntary or involuntary 13 reason prior to retirement, the member or the member's designated beneficiary is 14 entitled to the member's account balance at termination. The board automatically shall 15 refund a member's account balance if the member has completed less than three 16 years of eligible employment, has an account balance of less than one thousand 17 dollars, and was not a supreme or district court judge or a peace officer employed by 18 the bureau of criminal investigation and hired after July 31, 2023. If the member was a 19 supreme or district court judge, the board automatically shall refund a member's 20 account balance if the member completed less than five years of eligible employment 21 and has an account balance of less than one thousand dollars. If the member was a 22 peace officer employed by the bureau of criminal investigation and hired after July 31, 23 2023, the board automatically shall refund a member's account balance if the member 24 completed less than ten years of eligible employment and has an account balance of 25 less than one thousand dollars. A member may waive the refund if the member 26 submits a written statement to the board, within thirty days after termination, 27 requesting that the member's account balance remain in the fund. 28 The surviving spouse of a member receiving retirement benefits must be the 8. 29 member's primary beneficiary unless there is no surviving spouse or the surviving 30 spouse designates an alternate beneficiary in writing. - 9 SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 2 of section 54-52-28 of the North Dakota Century
 10 Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
- The minimum distribution rules under section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code, including the incidental death benefit requirements under section 401(a)(9)(G), and the regulations issued under that provision to the extent applicable to governmental plans, as amended. Accordingly, benefits must be distributed or begin to be distributed no
- 15 later than a member's required beginning date, and the required minimum distribution
- 16 rules override any inconsistent provision of this chapter. For a member who attains-
- 17 age seventy and one-half before January 1, 2020, the member's required beginning-
- 18 date is April first of the calendar year following the later of the calendar year in which-
- 19 the member attains age seventy and one-half or terminates employment. For a-
- 20 member who attains age seventy and one-half after December 31, 2019, the-
- 21 member's required beginning date is April first of the calendar year following the later-
- 22 of the calendar year in which the member attains age seventy-two or terminates-
- 23 employment.

SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.1-03.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

54-52.1-03.1. Certain political subdivisions authorized to join uniform group

- 27 insurance program Employer contribution.
- If eligible under federal law, a political subdivision may extend the benefits of the uniform group insurance program under this chapter to its permanent employees, subject to minimum
- 30 requirements established by the board and a minimum period of participation of sixty months. If
- 31 the political subdivision withdraws from participation in the uniform group insurance program,

1 before completing sixty months of participation, unless federal or state laws or rules are 2 modified or interpreted in a way that makes participation by the political subdivision in the 3 uniform group insurance program no longer allowable or appropriate, the political subdivision 4 shall make payment to the board in an amount equal to any expenses incurred in the uniform 5 group insurance program that exceed income received on behalf of the political subdivision's 6 employees as determined under rules adopted by the board. The Garrison Diversion 7 Conservancy District, and district shall participate in the uniform group insurance program under 8 the same terms and conditions as state agencies. District health units required to participate in 9 the public employees retirement system under section 54-52-02, which were participating in the 10 uniform group insurance program at the time the Affordable Care Act was enacted, shall 11 participate in the uniform group insurance program under the same terms and conditions as 12 state agencies. A retiree who has accepted a retirement allowance from a participating political 13 subdivision's retirement plan may elect to participate in the uniform group under this chapter 14 without meeting minimum requirements at age sixty-five, when the employee's spouse reaches 15 age sixty-five, upon the receipt of a benefit, when the political subdivision joins the uniform 16 group insurance plan if the retiree was a member of the former plan, or when the spouse 17 terminates employment. If a retiree or surviving spouse does not elect to participate at the times 18 specified in this section, the retiree or surviving spouse must meet the minimum requirements 19 established by the board. Each retiree or surviving spouse shall pay directly to the board the 20 premiums in effect for the coverage then being provided. The board may require documentation 21 that the retiree has accepted a retirement allowance from an eligible retirement plan other than 22 the public employees retirement system. 23 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 54-52.2-06 of the North Dakota Century Code is 24 amended and reenacted as follows:

54-52.2-06. Deferred compensation program - Benefits - Taxation - Exemption from judicial process - Assignment.

The deferred compensation program established by this chapter shall exist and serve in addition to retirement, pension, or benefit systems established by the state, county, city, town, or other political subdivision, and no deferral of income under the deferred compensation program shall effect a reduction of any retirement, pension, or other benefit provided by law. However, with the exception of Roth contributions, any sum deferred under the deferred compensation program is not subject to taxation until distribution is actually made to the employee. Any unpaid benefits under the deferred compensation program established by this chapter are not subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency laws, or other process of law whatsoever, except as provided by section 54-52.2-03.3. Neither the employee, the employee's beneficiary, nor any designee of the employee or the employee's beneficiary has the right to commute, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise convey the right to receive payments under this chapter.

8 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Subsection 8 of section 54-52.6-01 of the North Dakota
9 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

- 10 8. "Wages" and "salaries" means earnings in eligible employment under this chapter 11 reported as salary on a federal income tax withholding statement plus any salary 12 reduction or salary deferral amounts under 26 U.S.C. 125, 401(k), 403(b), 414(h), or 13 457. "Salary" does not include fringe benefits such as payments for unused sick leave, 14 personal leave, vacation leave paid in a lump sum, overtime, housing allowances, 15 transportation expenses, early retirement, incentive pay, severance pay, medical 16 insurance, workforce safety and insurance benefits, disability insurance premiums or 17 benefits, or salary received by a member in lieu of previously employer-provided fringe 18 benefits under an agreement between an employee and a participating employer. 19 Bonuses may be considered as salary under this section if reported and annualized-20 pursuant to rules adopted by the board. 21 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Subsection 1 of section 54-52.6-02.2 of the North Dakota 22 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows: 23 1. As used in this section, "eligible employee" means a permanent state employee who
- As used in this section, "eligible employee" means a permanent state employee who on December 31, 2024, is a participating member of the public employees retirement system main system plan under chapter 54-4254-52, who has been a participating member under chapter 54-52 for no more than five years, and who is at least eighteen years of age.
