(Juvenile Justice Committee)

- 1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact chapter 27-20.5 of the North Dakota Century Code,
- 2 relating to fitness to proceed and remediation of juveniles; to amend and reenact section
- 3 12.1-04-01, subsections 4 and 5 of section 12.1-04-08, subsection 5 of section 27-20.3-01, and

4 section 27-20.4-15 of the North Dakota Century Code, relating to the age of an offender,

5 suspension or dismissal of proceedings, predispositional assessment, and the definition of a 6 child in need of protection; to provide an appropriation; and to provide an effective date.

7 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

8 SECTION 1. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-04-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is

- 9 amended and reenacted as follows:
- 10 12.1-04-01. Juveniles.
- 11 1. An individual under the age of ten years is deemed incapable of commission of an-

12 offense defined by the constitution or statutes of this state. The prosecution of an individual as an adult is barred if the offense was committed while the individual was less than fourteen yearsof age.

- An individual ten years of age or older may be assessed for mental fitness or capacity under this chapter.
- SECTION 2. AMENDMENT. Subsection 4 of section 12.1-04-08 of the North Dakota
 Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:
- If the court determines the defendant currently lacks fitness to proceed and the defendant may attain fitness to proceed under subsection 12, the court may enter an
- order for a course of treatment considering the least restrictive form of treatment therapeutically appropriate.

1		a.	Unless excused by the court, in a proceeding to determine therapy in an attempt
2			to attain fitness, the defendant shall be represented by trial counsel.
3		b.	If the court finds the individual is not able to retain the services of a tier 1a mental
4			health professional and that those services are not otherwise available, the court
5			shall authorize reasonable expenditures from public funds to examine the 6			individual.
7		C.	In a motion hearing to resume prosecution, the state or prosecuting authority
8			must show by a preponderance of the evidence the defendant has attained
9			fitness to proceed.
10	SEC		3. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 12.1-04-08 of the North Dakota
11	Century	Code	e is amended and reenacted as follows:
12	5.	If the	e court orders the defendant committed to a treatment facility in an attempt to
13		attai	in fitness to proceed under subsection 4 2 , the court shall provide the special
14		cust	tody and commitment terms in the order. The special terms of commitment must
15		include an order for the defendant to accept all nonexperimental, generally accepted
16		mec	medical, psychiatric, or psychological treatment recommended by the treatment
17		facil	facility, including the use of involuntary treatment with prescribed medication without
18		the	need for a separate commitment under chapter 25-03.1.
19		a.	If the order does not indicate the terms of commitment, the director or 20			superintendent of the treatment facility may determine the nature of the 21			constraints necessary within the treatment facility to carry out the order of the 22			court.
23		b.	If the court orders an individual committed for therapeutic treatment to attain
24			fitness to proceed, the court shall set a date consistent with the timeline
25			established in this section for a review of the defendant's fitness to proceed. At
26			least sixty days before the date specified for review, the director or director's
27			designee or the superintendent of the treatment facility shall inquire as to whether
28			the individual is represented by counsel and file a written report of the facts
29			ascertained with the court.
30	SEC		4. AMENDMENT. Subsection 5 of section 27-20.3-01 of the North Dakota

 14 unless objected to by the parties.
- 15 4. If the court finds the minor is fit to proceed, the delinquency proceedings must proceed.

17 27-20.5-08. Remediation.

- 1. If the minor lacks fitness to proceed but the court finds the minor may be remediated to fitness to proceed within the period of the remediation order:
- 20a.The matter must be dismissed if the offense is an infraction or a class B21misdemeanor, except a class B misdemeanor under chapter 12.1-17; or
- b. The court may dismiss the matter or suspend the proceedings against the minor if the offense is a felony, class A misdemeanor, or class B misdemeanor under chapter 12.1-17.
- 25 2. If the proceedings are suspended because the minor lacks fitness to proceed but the 26 court finds the minor may be remediated to fitness within the period of the remediation 27 order, then:
- 28a.Before issuing a remediation order, the court shall hold a hearing to determine29the least restrictive available environment for completion of the remediation.

1		b. The court may issue a remediation order that is valid for sixty days from the date
2		of the court order finding the child incompetent or until one of the following
3		occurs, whichever occurs first:
4		(1) The tier 1a mental health professional, based on information provided by the 5		remediation provider, submits a report that the minor has regained fitness or 6		there is no substantial likelihood the minor will regain fitness within the 7		period of the order; or
8		(2) The delinquency proceedings are dismissed.
9		c. Following issuance of the remediation order, the remediation provider, who must 10		be separate and distinct from the tier 1a mental health professional, shall submit
11		a report to the court and the tier 1a mental health professional which includes the 12		information required under section 27-20.5-06. The report must be submitted to 13		the court and the tier 1a mental health professional no later than fourteen days
14		before the expiration of the sixty-day order or sooner if:
15		(1) The remediation provider determines the minor no longer lacks fitness to 16		proceed; or
17		(2) The remediation provider determines there is no substantial probability the
18		minor will be fit to proceed within the period of the order.
19	3.	No later than fourteen days before the expiration of the initial sixty-day order, the
20		remediation provider may recommend to the court and the tier 1a mental health
21		professional that the remediation order be renewed by the court for another sixty days,
22		if there is a substantial probability the minor will be fit to proceed within the period of 23		that renewed remediation order. The remediation provider shall include a report of 24		progress a minor made in remediation services which demonstrates the minor is likely
25		to be found fit to proceed if a renewal is ordered. The remediation order and any
26		renewed remediation order may not exceed a total of one hundred twenty days.
27	27-2	20.5-09. Disposition.
28	1.	Except as otherwise provided in this section, upon receipt of a report by the tier 1a
29		mental health professional that the minor lacks fitness to proceed and there is a
30		substantial likelihood the minor is unable to be remediated within the period of the 31		remediation order, the court may:

1		a.	Dismiss the delinquency proceedings and release the minor to the minor's
2			parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian; or
3		b.	Retain jurisdiction and release the minor to the minor's parent, legal guardian, or
4			legal custodian subject to mental health treatment or services under
5			subsection 2.
6	2.	The	court may in its discretion order mental health services or other available services
7		fron	n a mental health provider be provided to the minor by a community mental health
8		serv	vices program, the department of health and human services, or another
9		app	ropriate mental health services provider, subject to the availability of inpatient or
10		out	patient care, for a period not to exceed sixty days.
11		a.	The court retains jurisdiction over the minor throughout the duration of the order
12			and the juvenile court officer may assist with referrals, the assessment process,
13			and reporting to the court.
14		b.	The entity providing services under this subsection shall determine necessary
15			mental health treatment or services and continue to provide mental health
16			treatment or services for the duration of the period of mental health treatment or
17			services ordered by the court.
18	3.	No l	ater than fourteen days before the expiration of the order for mental health
19		trea	tment or services under this subsection or subsection 2, a report must be provided
20		to th	ne court regarding the minor. The court shall review the report and:
21		a.	Renew the order for another period of mental health treatment or services not to
22			exceed sixty days. The order for mental health treatment or services and any 23			renewed order may not exceed a total of one hundred twenty days; or
24		b.	Determine custody of the minor and dismiss the delinquency proceedings against
25			the minor.
26	4.	lf re	lease to the minor's parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian is determined
27		inap	propriate under subsection 1, the court may dismiss the delinquency proceeding
28		and	enter an order directing a child in need of protection petition to be filed, order a
29		she	lter care hearing be held, or enter a shelter care order.
