   b. Forward the assessments to the commission in accordance with section 4.1-03-13.
2. a. If a person sells North Dakota cattle outside this state or if a person sells North Dakota cattle to an out-of-state buyer, the person shall forward any assessments due under this chapter to the commission in accordance with section 4.1-03-13.

b. This subsection does not apply if the assessment has been paid to a brand inspector in another state or to another qualified state beef council.

3. Any other person selling cattle in this state shall forward any assessments due under this chapter to the commission in accordance with section 4.1-03-13.

SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 4.1-03-17 of the North Dakota Century Code is amended and reenacted as follows:

4.1-03-17. Permitted refunds of assessment - Refunds requiring certification by attorney general.

1. ~~a.~~ When the attorney general certifies to the commission that refunds of assessments paid under subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 4.1-03-11 are no longer precluded by federal law, the commission may provide to producers refunds of assessments paid under subdivision a of subsection 1 of section 4.1-03-11.

~~b. Refunds of assessments paid under subdivision b of subsection 1 of section 4.1-03-11 are available, subject to the requirements of this section.~~

2. a. To receive a permitted refund of any assessment paid in accordance with this chapter, a producer shall request a refund application from the commission within sixty days after the date of the sale. The request may be made orally, in writing, or in electronic form.

b. The producer must complete the refund application and return the application to the commission, together with a record of the assessment paid, within ninety days after the date of the sale. The application may be returned to the commission in person, by mail, or in electronic form. The commission shall then refund the net amount of the assessment that had been collected.

c. If a request for a refund is not submitted to the commission within the prescribed time period, the producer is presumed to have agreed to the assessment.

SECTION 7. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Geographical districts.

1. The state consists of the following districts:

a. District one: Barnes, Cass, Cavalier, Eddy, Foster, Grand Forks, Griggs, Nelson, Pembina, Ramsey, Steele, Towner, Traill, and Walsh Counties;

b. District two: Dickey, LaMoure, McIntosh, Ransom, Richland, and Sargent Counties;

c. District three: Kidder, Logan, and Stutsman Counties;

d. District four: Burleigh, Emmons, Sheridan, and Wells Counties;

e. District five: Benson, Bottineau, McHenry, Pierce, Renville, and Rolette Counties;

f. District six: Burke, Divide, McKenzie, McLean, Mountrail, Ward, and Williams Counties;

g. District seven: Billings, Dunn, Golden Valley, Oliver, and Mercer Counties;

h. District eight: Adams, Bowman, Hettinger, Slope, and Stark Counties; and

i. District nine: Grant, Morton, and Sioux Counties.

2. The commission shall review the nine district boundaries and tally the number of cattle in each district at least once every seven years to ensure accurate producer representation. If the commission determines the nine districts do not accurately represent cattle industry representatives in the state, the commission may enact a redistricting plan to amend district boundaries, provided each district contains at least three undivided counties. If two-thirds of the elected commission members vote in favor of the proposed redistricting plan, the commission shall adopt the plan. If the commission adopts a redistricting plan, the commission shall submit a bill to the next legislative assembly to amend subsection 1 in a manner consistent with the results of the redistricting plan. The redistricting plan becomes effective on the date the amended district boundaries under subsection 1 become effective.

SECTION 8. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Director of the North Dakota state university extension service - Nomination and election of district commission candidates.

1. a. The director of the North Dakota state university extension service shall oversee district representative commission member nominations and elections.

b. Between October first and December thirty-first of each year, the director shall conduct the nominating and election process to elect successors for districts with terms expiring that fiscal year.

c. The director shall notify all known cattle industry representatives in the respective district and request nominations for district representative commission candidates no fewer than forty-five nor more than sixty days before the district representative commission election. The notice must be published in all official county newspapers within the district or by reliable electronic means.

d. To be eligible as a candidate in a district commission election, at least five cattle industry representatives who reside in the district shall nominate the candidate in writing. A cattle industry representative may not self-nominate.

e. Upon receiving the district commission nominations, the director shall certify that nominated candidates meet the requirements of section 4.1-03-02. The director shall prepare the election ballots with the names of the certified nominated district commission candidates. Each ballot also must include a statement indicating:

(1) The date, time, and location the director will open the ballots and tabulate the results;

(2) The last date by which the ballots must be postmarked or filed with the director; and

(3) Any cattle industry representative in the district may be present at the time the ballots are opened and tabulated.

f. The director shall hold the district commission election by mail paper ballot. The director shall mail the ballots to each known cattle industry representative in the district at least thirty days before the election.

g. The director shall canvass the votes. The director shall notify the commission and the governor that the election has taken place, and provide to the commission and the governor the name and address and term of the newly elected district representative commission member.

2. If the cattle industry representatives in a district fail to elect an individual, as required by this section, the director shall notify the commission and the governor. The governor shall appoint a cattle industry representative who meets the requirements of section 4.1-03-02 to serve as the district commission member for the district. An individual appointed under this subsection has the same rights, duties, and privileges as an elected commission member.

3. Each eligible voter is entitled to one vote and must vote in the district in which the voter's livestock operation headquarters is located. If an eligible voter has multiple livestock operation headquarters in more than one district, the eligible voter shall cast their vote in the district in which the voter physically resides.

4. To determine whether an individual is eligible to vote under this chapter, the commission may:

   a. Obtain a list of livestock producers from the United States department of agriculture farm service agency through the process under title 7, Code of Federal Regulations, part 798; or

   b. Require the beef producer to certify to the North Dakota state university extension service the producer is an eligible voter under this chapter.

SECTION 9. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Election costs - Responsibility.

All costs of holding district commission member nominations and elections under section 7 of this Act are the responsibility of the commission.

SECTION 10. A new section to chapter 4.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is created and enacted as follows:

Referendums - Assessments.

1. If petitioned by at least fifteen percent of the cattle industry representatives of the state, the commission shall conduct a referendum among the cattle industry representatives to determine the amount by which the assessment imposed under section 4.1-03-11 should be adjusted.

2. No more than fifty percent of the cattle industry representatives who signed the petition may reside in the same district.

3. The commission shall hold an assessment referendum by mail paper ballot. The commission shall prepare the ballots with the petitioned amount by which the assessment imposed under section 4.1-03-11 is proposed to be adjusted and distribute the ballots to each cattle industry representative at least thirty days before the last date for filing ballots.

4. Each ballot must include a statement indicating:

a. The date the petition was filed and the number of signatures on the petition;

b. The date, time, and location the commission will open the ballots and tabulate the results;

c. The last date by which the ballots must be postmarked or filed with the commission; and

d. Any cattle industry representative may be present at the time the ballots are opened and tabulated.

5. The date selected by the commission for the opening and tabulation of the ballots must be at least five days after the date by which the ballots must be postmarked or filed with the commission.

6. The commission shall canvass the votes. If the majority of voting cattle industry representatives vote in favor of the proposed change, the commission shall submit a bill to the next legislative assembly to amend the statutory assessment in a manner consistent with the results of the vote.

7. All costs of holding an assessment referendum under this section are the responsibility of the commission.

SECTION 11. EFFECTIVE DATE. Section 2 of this Act becomes effective on January 1, 2026.
