 18 officers employed by the department of corrections and rehabilitation for at least four 19 consecutive years.

Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly

1	State agencies and political subdivisions receiving a grant under this program shall use the
2	funds only for providing each eligible peace officer or correctional officer an appreciation salary
3	bonus of up to $6,000 at the end of each fiscal year. The attorney general shall establish an
4	application process and eligibility requirements for the program in consultation with the peace
5	officer standards and training board and the department of corrections and rehabilitation. each
6	city and county law enforcement agency in the state based on the proportional number of
7	licensed peace officers and correctional officers employed by the city or county law enforcement
8	agency compared to the total number of licensed peace officers and correctional officers
9	employed by all city and county law enforcement agencies. Of the funding available for this
10	program, a sum of at least $750,000 must be granted to city and county law enforcement
11	agencies employing ten or fewer employees working in a law enforcement capacity. Funding
12	appropriated in this section must be used for providing hiring and retention bonuses to new and
13	current law enforcement and correctional officers and providing tuition and fee payments on
14	behalf of law enforcement trainees. During the 2025-26 interim, the attorney general shall
15	provide a report to the legislative management regarding the use and effectiveness of grant
16	funds, the number of grants provided, the average amount of bonuses provided by city and
17	county law enforcement agencies and correctional facilities, and other program outcomes under 18	this section. The funding provided in this section is considered a one-time funding item.
