- 8 a. "Abandoned infant" means an infant who has been abandoned at birth at a 9 hospital or before reaching the age of one year regardless of the location of birth 10 and who has been left with an on-duty staff member or, if an infant is less than 11 sixty days old, left in a newborn safety device, at an approved location in an 12 unharmed condition.
- b. "Approved location" means a hospital or other location as designated byadministrative rule adopted by the department.
- 15 c. "Hospital" means a facility licensed under chapter 23-16.
- 16 d. "Newborn safety device" means a device that is:
  - (1) Physically part of the building at an approved location;
  - (2) Staffed twenty-four hours a day seven days a week;
  - (3) Temperature-controlled and ventilated for the safety of newborns;
- 20 (4) Equipped with a functional alarm system which automatically triggers an 21 alarm inside the building when an infant is placed in the device; and
- 22(5)Located in a manner that the interior point of access is in an area that is23conspicuous and visible to the employees of the approved location.

Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly

1	2.	a. A parent of an infant less than sixty days old, or an agent of the parent with the
2		parent's consent, may leave the infant in a newborn safety device at an approved
3		location.
4		b. A parent of an infant under the age of one year, or an agent of the parent with the
5		parent's consent, may leave the infant with an on-duty staff member at an
6		approved location. Neither the parent nor the
7		c. A parent or agent who abandons an infant under this section is not subject to
8		prosecution under sections 14-07-15 and 14-09-22 for leaving an abandoned
9		infant.
10	3.	An infant left under this section must be accepted at an approved location shall accept-
11		an infant left under this section. The
12	4.	Except as provided in subsection 6, the approved location may request information
13		regarding the parents and shall provide the parent or the agent with a medical history
14		form and an envelope with the approved location's return address. If a hospital
15		accepting thean infant has the infant's medical history, the hospital is not required to
16		provide the parent or the agent with a medical history form. Neither theA parent nor-
17		theor agent is not required to provide any information.
18	4.5.	If Except as provided in subsection 6, if an infant is left at a hospital, the hospital shall
19		provide the parent or the agent with a numbered identification bracelet to link the
20		parent or the agent to the infant, unless due to birth of the infant, the infant and parent
21		currentlyalready have an identification bracelet. Possession of an identification
22		bracelet does not entitle the bracelet holder to take custody of the infant on demand . If
23		an individual possesses a bracelet linking the individual to an infant left at a hospital
24		under this section and parental rights have not been terminated, possession of the
25		bracelet creates a presumption that the individual has standing to participate in a
26		protection services action brought under this chapter or chapter 27-20.3. Possession
27		of the bracelet does not create a presumption of maternity, paternity, or custody.
28	5.6.	If an abandoned infant is left in a newborn safety device at an approved location, the
29		approved location may not inquire as to the identity of the parent or agent. Except as
30		provided in subsection 10, if the identity of the parent or agent is known to the
31		approved location, the approved location shall keep all information as to the identity of

1		the parent or agent confidential. The parent or agent is not required to provide any
2		information to the approved location but may voluntarily provide information, including
3		the medical history of the parents or infant.
4	7.	The approved location may provide the parent or the agent with any relevant
5		information, including:
6		a. Information about the safe place for abandoned infant programs;
7		b. Information about adoption and counseling services; and
8		c. Information about whom to contact if reunification is sought.
9	6.8.	Within twenty-four hours of receiving an infant under this section, the approved
10		location shall report to the department or authorized agent, as required by section
11		50-25.1-03, that an infant has been left at thean approved location. The report may not
12		be made before the parent or the agent leaves the approved location.
13	7.9.	The approved location and its employees and agents are immune from any criminal or
14		civil liability for accepting an infant under this section.
15	8.10.	Upon receiving a report of an abandoned infant under this section, the department or
16		authorized agent shall proceed as required under this chapter if it appears that the
17		abandoned infant was not harmed, except the department or authorized agent may
18		not attempt to identify or contact the parent or the agent. If it appears the infant who
19		was left was harmed, the approved location shall disclose to the department any
20		known information as to the identity of the parent or agent, and the department or
21		authorized agent shall initiate a child protection assessment of the matter as required
22		by law.
23	9.11.	If an individual claiming to be the parent or the agent contacts the department or
24		authorized agent and requests to be reunited with the infant who was leftan
25		abandoned infant, the department or authorized agent may identify or contact the 26		individual as required under this chapter and all other applicable laws. If an individual
27		contacts the department or authorized agent seeking information only, the department
28		or authorized agent may attempt to obtain information regarding the identity and
29		medical history of the parents and may provide information regarding the procedures
30		in a case involving an infant who was left at an approved location. The individual is
31		under no obligation to respond to the request for information, and the department or
