1		protection services action brought under this chapter or chapter 27-20.3. Possession
2		of the bracelet does not create a presumption of maternity, paternity, or custody.
3	5.6.	If an abandoned infant is left in a newborn safety device at an approved location, the
4	1	approved location may not inquire as to the identity of the parent or agent. Except as
5		provided in subsection 10, if the identity of the parent or agent of the abandoned child
6	I	is known to the approved location, the approved location shall keep all information as
7		to the identity of the parent or agent of the abandoned child confidential. The parent or
8		agent of the abandoned child is not required to provide any information to the 9		approved location but may voluntarily provide information, including the medical
10		history of the parents or infant.
11	7.	The approved location may provide the parent or the agent with any relevant
12		information, including:
13		a. Information about the safe place for abandoned infant programs;
14		b. Information about adoption and counseling services; and
15		c. Information about whom to contact if reunification is sought.
16	6.8.	Within twenty-four hours of receiving an infant under this section, the approved
17		location shall report to the department or authorized agent, as required by section
18		50-25.1-03, that an infant has been left at thean approved location. The report may not
19		be made before the parent or the agent leaves the approved location.
20	7.9.	The approved location and its employees and agents are immune from any criminal or
21		civil liability for accepting an infant under this section.
22	8.10.	Upon receiving a report of an abandoned infant under this section, the department or
23		authorized agent shall proceed as required under this chapter if it appears that the 24		abandoned infant was not harmed, except the department or authorized agent may
25	I	not attempt to identify or contact the parent or the agent. If it appears the infant who
26		was left was harmed, the approved location shall disclose to the department or
27		authorized agent any known information as to the identity of the parent or agent, and
28		the department or authorized agent shall initiate a child protection assessment of the 29		matter as required by law.
30	9.11.	If an individual claiming to be the parent or the agent contacts the department or
31		authorized agent and requests to be reunited with the infant who was leftan

1 abandoned infant, the department or authorized agent may identify or contact the 2 individual as required under this chapter and all other applicable laws. If an individual 3 contacts the department or authorized agent seeking information only, the department 4 or authorized agent may attempt to obtain information regarding the identity and 5 medical history of the parents and may provide information regarding the procedures 6 in a case involving an infant who was left at an approved location. The individual is 7 under no obligation to respond to the request for information, and the department or 8 authorized agent may not attempt to compel response to investigate the identity or 9 background of the individual.

1010.12.The department shall develop and implement a public awareness campaign to provide11information, public service announcements, and educational materials regarding this12section to the public, including medical providers, law enforcement, and social service13agencies.
