Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly of North Dakota

HOUSE BILL NO. 1593

Introduced by

Representatives Hendrix, Bolinske, VanWinkle, K. Anderson, M. Ruby, McLeod, Frelich, Steiner

Senators Boehm, Paulson, Castaneda, Clemens

- 1 A BILL for an Act to create and enact a new section to chapter 51-07 of the North Dakota
- 2 Century Code, relating to a commercial entity's liability for publishing or distributing sexual
- 3 material harmful to a minor; to provide a penalty; and to provide for application.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF NORTH DAKOTA:

- 5 SECTION 1. A new section to chapter 51-07 of the North Dakota Century Code is created
- 6 and enacted as follows:

7 Liability for publishing or distributing sexual material harmful to minors - Age

8 verification requirement - Damages.

- 9 1. As used in this section:
- 10a."Commercial entity" includes a corporation, limited liability company, partnership,11limited partnership, sole proprietorship, or other legally recognized business12entity.
- 13b."Distribute" means to issue, sell, give, provide, deliver, transfer, transmute,14circulate, or disseminate by any means.
- 15 c. "Minor" means an individual under eighteen years of age.
- 16 d. "News-gathering organization" means an employee of a:
- 17 (1) Newspaper, news publication, or news source, printed or on an online or 18 mobile platform, of current news and public interest, who is acting within the 19 scope of employment and can provide documentation of employment with 20 the newspaper, news publication, or news source; or
- 21(2)Radio broadcast station, television broadcast station, cable television22operator, or wire service, who is acting within the scope of employment and

1			can	provide documentation of employment with the radio broadcast station,
2			telev	rision broadcast station, cable television operator, or wire service.
3	e.	"Pu	blish"	means to communicate or make information available to another
4		pers	son or	a publicly available internet website.
5	f.	"Re	asona	ble age verification methods" includes verifying the individual seeking to
6		acc	ess th	e material is eighteen years of age or older by using:
7		(1)	A dig	jitized identification card; or
8		(2)	Req	uiring the individual attempting to access the material to comply with a
9			com	mercial age verification system including the use of:
10			a.	Government-issued identification; or
11			b.	Any commercially reasonable method that relies on public or private
12				transactional data to verify the age of the individual attempting to
13				access the information is eighteen years of age or older.
14	g.	"Se	xual m	naterial harmful to a minor" includes material that:
15		(1)	The	average individual applying contemporary community standards would
16			find,	taking the material as a whole and with respect to a minor, is designed
17			to ap	opeal to or pander to the prurient interest;
18		(2)	In a	manner patently offensive with respect to a minor, exploits, is devoted
19			to, o	r principally consists of descriptions of actual, simulated, or animated
20			displ	ays or depictions of:
21			a.	An individual's pubic hair, anus, genitals, or the nipple of the female
22				breast;
23			b.	Touching, caressing, or fondling of nipples, breasts, buttocks, anuses,
24				or genitals; or
25			C.	Sexual intercourse, masturbation, sodomy, bestiality, oral copulation,
26				flagellation, excretory functions, exhibitions, or any other sexual act;
27				and
28		(3)	Take	n as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value
29			for a	minor.
30	h.	"Su	bstant	ial portion" means if more than thirty-three and one-third percent of total
31		mat	terial o	n a website is sexual material harmful to a minor.

Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly

2 exchange, agreement, or transfer between an individual, commercial entity, or 3 third party used for the purpose of satisfying a request or event. The term. 4 includes records from morigage, education, and employment entities. 5 2. A commercial entity that knowingly publishes or distributes sexual material harmful to. 6 a minor on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of the. 7 material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification. 8 methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. 9 3. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not. 10 retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the. 11 material. 12 4. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. 13 5. Activil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that 14 performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity. by: 13 a. Aparent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in 14 violation of subsection 2; or 15 A nindividual authorized to bring a civil action u	1		i. "Transactional data" means a sequence of information that documents an
4 includes records from mortgage, education, and employment entities. 5 2. A commercial entity that knowingly publishes or distributes sexual material harmful to a minor on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of the material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification. 7 material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. 9 3. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material. 12 4. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. 13 5. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or 16 An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award; 20 a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; 21 b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 23 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organizati	2		exchange, agreement, or transfer between an individual, commercial entity, or
 A commercial entity that knowingly publishes or distributes sexual material harmful to. a minor on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of the. material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification. methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2: or b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the i	3		third party used for the purpose of satisfying a request or event. The term
 a minor on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of the. material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification. methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not. retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the. material. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any. news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	4		includes records from mortgage, education, and employment entities.
 material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification. methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the. material. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. A ninjunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control. including. 	5	2.	A commercial entity that knowingly publishes or distributes sexual material harmful to methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material. A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section: b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	6		a minor on the internet from a website that contains a substantial portion of the
 A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the material. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. A commercial entity of the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing. access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	7		material must be held liable if the entity fails to perform reasonable age verification
10 retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the 11 material. 12 4. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. 13 5. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. 14 performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: 15 a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in 16 violation of subsection 2; or 17 b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 18 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the 19 court may award: 20 a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; 21 b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and 22 c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 23 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any 24 website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any 25 news-gathering organization. 26 8. An internet service provide	8		methods to verify the age of an individual attempting to access the material.
11 material. 12 4. A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages. 13 5. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. 14 performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: 15 a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in 16 violation of subsection 2; or 17 b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 18 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the 19 court may award: 20 a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section: 21 b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and 22 c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 23 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any 24 website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any 25 news-gathering organization. 26 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud. 27 service provider may not	9	3.	A commercial entity or third party that performs the required age verification may not
124.A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages.135.A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that14performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by:15a.A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in16violation of subsection 2; or17b.An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3.186.An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the19court may award:20a.An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section;21b.Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c.Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237.This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast.24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any.25news-gathering organization.268.An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud.27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing.28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the.29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	10		retain any identifying information of the individual after access has been granted to the
 5. A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that. performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2; or b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award: a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including 	11		material.
14 performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by: 15 a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in 16 violation of subsection 2; or 17 b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3. 18 6. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the 19 court may award: 20 a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; 21 b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and 22 c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 23 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, 24 website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any 25 news-gathering organization. 26 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud 27 service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing 28 access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the 29 internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	12	4.	A commercial entity found to have violated subsection 2 or 3 is liable for damages.
15a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in violation of subsection 2: or16violation of subsection 2: or17b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3.186. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the court may award:20a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section:21b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization.268. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including	13	5.	A civil action may be brought against any commercial entity, or third party that 16violation of subsection 2; or17b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3.186. An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the19court may award:20a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section;21b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any25news-gathering organization.268. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	14		performs the required age verification on behalf of the commercial entity, by:
17b.An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3.186.An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the19court may award:20a.An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section:21b.Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c.Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237.This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any25news-gathering organization.268.An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud.27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing.28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	15		a. A parent or guardian whose minor child was allowed access to the material in
186.An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the19court may award:20a.An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section;21b.Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c.Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237.This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any25news-gathering organization.268.An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	16		violation of subsection 2; or
19court may award:20a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section:21b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any25news-gathering organization.268. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud.27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing.28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	17		b. An individual whose identifying information is retained in violation of subsection 3.
 a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section; b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any. news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing. access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	18	6.	An individual authorized to bring a civil action under subsection 5 may seek and the 21b.Compensatory and exemplary damages; and22c.Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.237.This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,24website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any25news-gathering organization.268.An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud27service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing28access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the29internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including.	19		court may award:
 c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees. 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	20		a. An injunction to enjoin continued violation of this section;
 7. This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast, website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including 	21		b. Compensatory and exemplary damages; and website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any news-gathering organization. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	22		c. Costs and fees, including reasonable attorney fees.
 25 news-gathering organization. 26 8. An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud 27 service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing 28 access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the 29 internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	23	7.	This section does not apply to any bona fide news or public interest broadcast,
 An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including. 	24		website video, report, or event, and may not be construed to affect the rights of any
 27 service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing 28 access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the 29 internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including 	25		news-gathering organization.
 28 access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the 29 internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including 	26	8.	An internet service provider or its affiliates or subsidiaries, a search engine, or a cloud
29 internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including	27		service provider may not be held to have violated this section solely for providing
	28		access or connection to or from a website or other information or content on the
30 transmission, downloading, intermediate storage, access software, or other forms of	29		internet or a facility, system, or network not under the provider's control, including
	30		transmission, downloading, intermediate storage, access software, or other forms of

Sixty-ninth Legislative Assembly

- 1 access or storage to the extent the provider is not responsible for the creation of the
- 2 content of the communication that constitutes sexual material harmful to a minor.
- 3 SECTION 2. APPLICATION. This Act applies to websites accessed on or after the effective
- 4 date of this Act.