- 24 b. The least restrictive means of furthering that compelling state interest.

- 1       5. Parental rights are reserved exclusively to a parent of a child without obstruction by or

21          services investigation;
- 22          (4) The passive security or surveillance of buildings or grounds; or
- 23          (5) Any event during which an individual does not have a reasonable 24          expectation of privacy;
- 25      j. Promptly be notified by an authorized representative of the state or a political 26      subdivision or other public institution if an employee of the entity or institution 27      suspects abuse, neglect, or other criminal offense has been committed against 28      the child, unless the employee has reasonable cause to believe a parent of the 29      child committed the offense;

- 1           k. Opt the child out of any personal analysis, evaluation, survey, or data collection 2           by a school district except what is necessary to establish a student's educational

12       law enforcement personnel, may not encourage or coerce a child to withhold 13       information from the child's parent and may not withhold information that is relevant to 14       the physical, emotional, or mental health of the child from a child's parent.
- 15       8. A parent claiming to be aggrieved by a violation of this section may assert that 16       violation as a claim or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain appropriate relief,
