2		licensed attorneys selected by these entities. The attorney general may revoke
3		the appointment only for good cause or upon the request of the entity. Good
4		cause means an inadequate level of experience, competence, or ethical
5		standards.
6	2.	The attorney general may not revoke with good cause, an appointed special assistant
7		attorney general licensed to practice law in the state, in good standing, and employed
8		by the:
9		a. Governor ;
10		b. Agriculture commissioner;
11		c. State auditor;
12		d. Insurance commissioner;
13		e. Public service commissioner;
14		f. Secretary of state;
15		g. Superintendent of public instruction;
16		h. Tax commissioner; or
17		i. State treasurer.
18	3.	The powers conferred upon special assistant attorneys general are the same as are
19		exercised by the regular assistant attorneys general, unless the powers are limited
20		specifically by the terms of the appointment. Except as otherwise provided by this
21		section, an appointment is revocable at the pleasure of the attorney general. The
22		appointment may be made with or without compensation, and when compensation is
23		allowed by the attorney general for services performed, the compensation must be
24		paid out of the funds appropriated therefor.
25	3.4.	The attorney general may require payment for legal services rendered by any
26		assistant or special assistant attorney general to any state official, board, department,
27		agency, or commission and those entities shall make the required payment to the
28		attorney general. Moneys received by the attorney general in payment for legal
29		services rendered must be deposited into the attorney general's operating fund.
30		General fund moneys may not be utilized for the payment of legal services provided by	1
31		the attorneys employed by the attorney general, except for those payments required of	f
