12 |       As used in this chapter:

- 13 |       1. "Administrator" means the sheriff, chief of police, administrator, superintendent,
14 |       director, or other individual serving as the chief executive officer of a correctional 15 |       facility.
- 16 |       2. "Adult lockup" means a secure temporary-hold nonresidential facility that does not 17 |       hold individuals overnight and includes a facility with cuffing rails or cuffing benches.
- 18 |       3. "Correctional facility" means a city or county jail or detention center, regional 19 |       corrections center, or juvenile detention center for the detention or confinement of 20 |       persons in accordance with law. The use of the term does not imply and may not be

- 1           used to require the provision of services including treatment, counseling, career and 2           technical education, or other educational services, except as may otherwise be 3           required or provided for under this chapter. The term does not include transitional 4           facilities.
- 5           4. "Correctional facility staff" means correctional personnel with titles such as jailer, 6           deputy, counselor, correctional officer, or any other title, whose duties include the 7           ongoing supervision of inmates in a correctional facility.
- 8           5. "Court holding facility" means a secure facility, other than an adult correctional facility 9           or adult lockup, used to temporarily detain individuals before or after a detention 10          hearing or other court proceedings, and is not used to detain individuals overnight.
- 11          6. "Individual justice planning" means a process to identify, accommodate, and develop 12          appropriate consequences for behaviors caused by or related to an individual's mental 13          or cognitive impairment.
- 14          7. "Inmate" means any individual, whether sentenced or unsentenced, who is detained or 15          confined in a correctional facility. The term does not include an individual who is under 16          the supervision of the correctional facility and is supervised under home detention, 17          electronic monitoring, or a similar program that does not involve physical detention or 18          confinement in the facility.
- 19          8. "Jail" means a correctional facility, including a county or city jail or a regional 20          corrections center.
- 21          9. "Juvenile detention center" means a publicly maintained correctional facility for the 22          detention of juveniles. The term does not include the North Dakota youth correctional 23          center.
- 24          10. "Regional corrections center" means a correctional facility established and maintained 25          by more than one county or city, or a combination of counties and cities, for the 26          confinement of inmates.
- 27          11. "Trained correctional facility staff" means correctional personnel who have completed 28          a course of training approved by the peace officer standards and training board.
- 29          12. "Transitional facility" means an organization or facility, operating under contract, in 30          partnership with, or under the direction of the department of corrections and

1            rehabilitation or a correctional facility, which offers education, counseling, or other 2            programs, with minimum security housing, for offenders.

7 rehabilitation may transfer an offender to any facility under the department's control or contract 8 to transfer an offender to another correctional facility for purposes of safety, security, discipline, 9 or medical care, ~~or when the director determines it may be in the best interests of the public, the~~ 10 ~~offender, or the department.~~

11           SECTION 3. AMENDMENT. Section 12-48.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is 12 amended and reenacted as follows:

13           12-48.1-01. ~~Director may provide certain~~ Work release and education or rehabilitation 14 services for offenders.

15           1. The director of the department of corrections and rehabilitation may participate in 16 programs in which eligible offenders committed to the legal and physical custody of 17 the department may be gainfully employed or participate in an educational or other 18 rehabilitation program either in or outside facilities under the control of the department.
19 ~~The~~ For eligible offenders, the director may obtain or contract with separate facilities 20 with minimum security for housing offenders granted release privileges. In areas 21 where facilities are not within reasonable proximity of the place of employment or 22 training of an offender so released, the director may arrange for the housing of the 23 offender in local confinement facilities.

24           2. For purposes of this chapter, an "eligible offender" means an offender who:

- 25           a. In accordance with section 12.1-32-09.1, has served eighty-five percent of the 26           offender's sentence of imprisonment or had the offender's sentences commuted;

30           of section 12.1-21-02; section 12.1-21-03.1; subdivision b of subsection 1 of 31           section 12.1-21-05; section 12.1-21-06.1, 12.1-22-05, 12.1-23-02, 12.1-23-04,

1                   12.1-23-07, 12.1-23-08, or 12.1-24-01; subsection 7 of section 19-03.1-23; or 2                   section 19-03.4-03 or 39-08-01.

3           3. The department of corrections and rehabilitation shall provide to the attorney general 4           and the legislative management council each quarter a report, including the names, 5           locations, and sentences of each individual who meets the criteria in subdivision b of 6           subsection 2.

7           SECTION 4. AMENDMENT. Section 12-48.1-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is 8 amended and reenacted as follows:

9           12-48.1-02. Conditions of eligibility for participation in release programs.

- 10           1. An eligible offender, except an offender sentenced to a penalty of life imprisonment 11           without the opportunity for parole as the result of conviction of a class AA felony under 12           section 12.1-20-03 or of murder under section 12.1-16-01, may be eligible for 13           programs participate in a program outside facilities a facility under the control of the 14           department of corrections and rehabilitation when the department determines, with a 15           high degree of reliability, the eligible offender is not a high security risk, not likely to 16           commit a crime of violence, not likely to escape, and is likely to be rehabilitated by 17           such program. An eligible offender may apply to the director of the department for 18           permission to participate in such programs.
- 19           2. The director of the department may authorize participation in outside programs for an 20           eligible offender who has ten years or less remaining on a sentence and has been 21           committed to the legal and physical custody of the department. The parole board, with 22           the approval of the director of the department, may authorize participation in outside 23           programs for eligible offenders who have more than ten years remaining on a 24           sentence and have been committed to the legal and physical custody of the 25           department.
- 26           3. The offender shall submit a signed application which must include a statement that the 27           eligible offender agrees to abide by all terms and conditions of the particular plan 28           adopted for the eligible offender, and must include such other information as the 29           parole board or the director of the department may require.
- 30           4. The parole board may approve, disapprove, or defer action on an application 31           approved by the director of the department. The director of the department or the 1 parole board may revoke approval of the application at any time after granting the 2 application. The department shall prescribe rules of conduct and treatment for all 3 eligible offenders on release programs and shall prescribe objective and subjective 4 criteria for which revocation of approval to participate in release programs is 5 mandatory. A rule violation indicating the eligible offender likely will commit a crime of 6 violence or is likely to attempt to escape must result in revocation of approval to 7 participate in release programs. The department shall document all violations of the 8 rules of conduct and treatment.

9 5. The director of the department may grant short leaves, not to exceed seventy-two 10 hours, to eligible offenders who have been committed to the legal and physical 11 custody of the department for ten years or less. The parole board, upon the approval 12 of the director of the department, may grant short leaves, not to exceed seventy-two 13 hours, to offenders committed to the legal and physical custody of the department for 14 more than ten years. Short leaves granted under this subsection may not be granted 15 consecutively to the same individual.

16 6. All rules adopted by the parole board and the director of the department relating to 17 release programs and short leaves must conform, to the extent allowable by law, with 18 executive order no. 11755 issued by the President of the United States.

19 SECTION 5. AMENDMENT. Section 12-54.1-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is 20 amended and reenacted as follows:

21 12-54.1-01. Sentence reduction for good time.

22 ~~Except as provided under~~Subject to the requirements of section 12.1-32-09.1, an offender 23 committed to the legal and physical custody of the department of corrections and rehabilitation 24 is eligible to earn sentence reductions based upon satisfactory fulfillment of performance criteria 25 established through department and penitentiary rules. Performance criteria ~~includes~~must 26 include participation in court-ordered or staff-recommended treatment and education programs 27 and good work performance. The department may credit an offender committed to the legal and 28 physical custody of the department who is eligible for sentence reduction up to five days good 29 time per month for each month of the sentence imposed~~served~~, up to a maximum of fifteen 30 percent of the offender's sentence. Sentence reductions may not be awarded before they are 31 earned. The department may credit an offender with sentence reduction for time spent in 1 custody before sentencing and commitment to the legal and physical custody of the 2 department. The department may not credit an offender with any sentence reduction for time 3 spent on probation under the supervision and management of the department.

4 SECTION 6. AMENDMENT. Section 12-54.1-03 of the North Dakota Century Code is
5 amended and reenacted as follows:

6 12-54.1-03. Meritorious conduct sentence reduction.

7 ~~Except as provided under section 12-1-32-09.1, offenders~~Offenders committed to the legal 8 and physical custody of the department of corrections and rehabilitation may receive a lump 9 sum or a monthly rate of meritorious conduct sentence reduction for outstanding performance 10 or heroic acts ~~or as a special control and security measure~~, as provided by penitentiary and 11 department rules and upon written recommendation of a department multidisciplinary team.
12 Meritorious sentence reductions are in addition to sentence reductions under section 13 12-54.1-01 and may be made only after a written recommendation is made by the warden and 14 approved by the director of the department. Any sentence reduction ~~for special control or~~ 15 ~~security measures~~under this section may not exceed ~~two days~~one day good time per month per 16 offender.

17 SECTION 7. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-08-02 of the North Dakota Century Code is 18 amended and reenacted as follows:

19 12.1-08-02. Preventing arrest or discharge of other duties.

20 ~~4.~~ A person is guilty of a class A misdemeanor if, with intent to prevent a public servant 21 from effecting an arrest of himself or another for a misdemeanor or infraction, or from 22 discharging any other official duty, he creates a substantial risk of bodily injury to the public 23 servant or to anyone except himself, or employs means justifying or requiring substantial force 24 to overcome resistance to effecting the arrest or the discharge of the duty. A person is guilty of a 25 class C felony if, with intent to prevent a public servant from effecting an arrest of himself or 26 another for a class A, B, or C felony, he creates a substantial risk of bodily injury to the public 27 servant or to anyone except himself, or employs means justifying or requiring substantial force 28 to overcome resistance to effecting such an arrest.

29 ~~2.1.~~ It is a defense to a prosecution under this section that the public servant was not 30 acting lawfully, but it is no defense that the defendant mistakenly believed that the 1 public servant was not acting lawfully. A public servant executing a warrant or other 2 process in good faith and under color of law shall be deemed to be acting lawfully.

3 2. A conviction under this section carries a penalty of at least fourteen days' 4 imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be 5 consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

6 SECTION 8. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-17-01 of the North Dakota Century Code is 7 amended and reenacted as follows:

8 12.1-17-01. Simple assault.

- 9 1. A person is guilty of an offense if that person:
- 10 a. Willfully causes bodily injury to another human being; or
- 11 b. Negligently causes bodily injury to another human being by means of a firearm,
- 12 destructive device, or other weapon, the use of which against a human being is
- 13 likely to cause death or serious bodily injury.
- 14 2. The offense is:
- 15 a. A class C felony when the victim is a peace officer or correctional institution
- 16 employee acting in an official capacity, which the actor knows to be a fact; an
- 17 employee of the state hospital acting in the course and scope of employment,
- 18 which the actor knows to be a fact, and the actor is an individual committed to or
- 19 detained at the state hospital pursuant to chapter 25-03.3; a person engaged in a
- 20 judicial proceeding; or a member of a municipal or volunteer fire department or
- 21 emergency medical services personnel unit or emergency department worker in
- 22 the performance of the member's duties.
- 23 b. A class B misdemeanor except as provided in subdivision a.
- 24 c. A conviction under subdivision a carries a penalty of at least thirty days'
- 25 imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be
- 26 consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

27 SECTION 9. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-32-02.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 28 amended and reenacted as follows:

29 12.1-32-02.1. Mandatory prison terms for armed offenders.

- 30 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a term of imprisonment must be
- 31 imposed upon an offender and served without benefit of parole when:

- 1           a. In the course of committing an offense, the offender inflicts or attempts to inflict
- 2           bodily injury upon another, threatens or menaces another with imminent bodily
- 3           injury with a dangerous weapon, explosive, destructive device, or firearm; or
- 4           b. An offender prohibited from possessing a firearm under section 62.1-02-01
- 5           possesses a firearm while in the course of committing any felony offense under
- 6           subsection 1; or 3; ~~or 7~~ of section 19-03.1-23.
- 7        2. This requirement applies only when possession of a dangerous weapon, explosive,
- 8        destructive device, or firearm has been charged and admitted or found to be true in
- 9        the manner provided by law, and must be imposed as follows:
- 10       a. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class AA, class A, or class B
- 11       felony, the court shall impose a minimum sentence of four years' imprisonment.
- 12       b. If the offense for which the offender is convicted is a class C felony, the court
- 13       shall impose a minimum sentence of two years' imprisonment.
- 14       3. This section applies even when being armed is an element of the offense for which the - 15       offender is convicted.
- 16       4. This section applies even if the offender is prosecuted for a violation of section
- 17       62.1-02-01 for the same conduct.
- 18       5. An offender serving a sentence subject to this section ~~may be eligible to participate in~~
- 19       ~~a release program under section 12-48.1-02 during the last six months of the~~
- 20       ~~offender's sentence~~ is not an eligible offender under subdivision b of subsection 2 of
- 21       section 12-48.1-01.

22        SECTION 10. AMENDMENT. Section 12.1-32-09.1 of the North Dakota Century Code is 23 amended and reenacted as follows:

24        12.1-32-09.1. Sentencing of violent offenders Truth in sentencing.

- 25        1. Except as provided under ~~section~~ sections 12-48.1-01 and 12-48.1-02 and pursuant to
- 26        rules adopted by the department of corrections and rehabilitation ~~12-54.1-03~~, an
- 27        offender who is sentenced as a dangerous special offender or habitual offender under
- 28        section 12.1-32-09, or is convicted of a crime in violation of section 12.1-16-01,
- 29        12.1-16-02, subsection 2 of section 12.1-17-02, section 12.1-18-01, subdivision a of
- 30        subsection 1 or subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 12.1-20-03, section
- 31        12.1-22-01, subdivision b of subsection 2 of section 12.1-22-02, or an attempt to

1            commit the offenses, and who receives a sentence of imprisonment is not eligible for 2            release from confinement on any basis until eighty-five percent of the sentence 3            imposed by the court has been served or the sentence is commuted. All other 4            offenders are not eligible for release from confinement on any basis until:

5            a. Fifty percent of the sentence imposed by the court is served, not including any 6            time credited under section 12-54.1-01, and the offender is paroled;

7            b. The offender's sentence is commuted and the offender served the commuted 8            sentence;

9            c. Eighty-five percent of the sentence imposed by the court is served; or 10           d. The offender is pardoned.

11           2. In the case of an offender who is sentenced to a term of life imprisonment with 12           opportunity for parole under subsection 1 of section 12.1-32-01, the term "sentence 13           imposed" means the remaining life expectancy of the offender on the date of 14           sentencing. The remaining life expectancy of the offender must be calculated on the 15           date of sentencing, computed by reference to a recognized mortality table as 16           established by rule by the supreme court.

17           3. Notwithstanding this section, an offender sentenced under subsection 1 of section 18           12.1-32-01 may not be eligible for parole until the requirements of that subsection 19           have been met.

20           4. ~~An offender who is convicted of a class C felony in violation of section 12.1-17-02, or~~ 21           ~~an attempt to commit the offense, and who has received a sentence of imprisonment~~ 22           ~~or a sentence of imprisonment upon revocation of probation before August 1, 2015, is~~ 23           ~~eligible to have the offender's sentence considered by the parole board.~~

24           5. ~~Notwithstanding subsection 4, this section does not apply to a sentence imposed upon~~ 25           ~~revocation of probation.~~ For purposes of this section "confinement" does not include 26           placement or residence in a transitional facility, halfway house, or other organization or 27           facility, operating under contract, in partnership with, or under the direction of the 28           department of corrections and rehabilitation or other correctional facility, that offers 29           education, counseling, or other programs, with minimum security housing, for 30           offenders.

1       SECTION 11. AMENDMENT. Section 39-10-71 of the North Dakota Century Code is 2 amended and reenacted as follows:

3       39-10-71. Fleeing or attempting to elude a peace officer - Penalty.

4       1. A driver of a motor vehicle who willfully fails or refuses to bring the vehicle to a stop, or 5 who otherwise flees or attempts to elude, in any manner, a pursuing police vehicle or 6 peace officer, when given a visual or audible signal to bring the vehicle to a stop, is 7 guilty of a:

8       a. Class A misdemeanor for a first offense and a class C felony for a subsequent 9 offense within three years;

10       b. Class C felony if the driver violates this section while willfully fleeing during or 11 after the commission of a felony; or

12       c. Class C felony if, at any time during the flight or pursuit, the driver willfully 13 operates the vehicle in a manner constituting an inherent risk of death or serious 14 bodily injury to a third person.

15       2. A signal complies with this section if the signal is perceptible to the driver and:

16       a. If given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or 17 siren, and the stopping vehicle is appropriately marked showing it to be an official 18 police vehicle; or

19       b. If not given from a vehicle, the signal is given by hand, voice, emergency light, or 20 siren, and the officer is in uniform or prominently displays the officer's badge of 21 office.

22       3. A felony conviction under this section carries a penalty of at least thirty days' 23 imprisonment and, if there is an underlying conviction, the imprisonment must be 24 consecutive to any sentence of imprisonment for the underlying conviction.

25       4. Upon a motion by a state's attorney, a court may order that a motor vehicle used in the 26 commission of a violation of this section be impounded by a peace officer for up to six 27 months.
