I am in support of banning any and all nondisclosure agreements. Secret agreements between data center developers and local officials should never be hidden. Secrecy only leaves residents with unanswered questions and distrust of their local leaders. Full transparency is non negotiable.

Politicians are elected to represent us, not to represent industry. I urge you to listen to the people and ban NDAs.

Thank you for your time,

Susan R. Long, Berlin ND