

Hello

I strongly oppose having a Christian Chapelins in public School districts. 1 I feel it's s violation of the separation of church and state. 2 If a parent feels the need of this they can send their child to a private Christian school. 3 Will You provide religious figures for all other religions of the students in the school districts? Because obviously not every student is Christian