

All students need, at a minimum, access to nutritious foods in order to have a chance at improving their physical and mental health, and allow them to learn!

Students who eat breakfast at school have better attendance rates, fewer missed school days, and better test scores!