

No state has the right to force a woman or any human being who can become pregnant to continue a pregnancy under any circumstances. No government or jurisdiction has the right to tell a person what they can and cannot do with their bodies. It is ludicrous to define life as beginning at conception or to define a cluster of cells as a human being. This bill will only serve to punish, demean, and potentially endanger women.