

Life

We must stop kidding ourselves into believing that the life in the womb isn't a life until it is born. Why do mothers and fathers cry over a miscarriage? Because they know that the life of their baby has been snuffed out. Born or unborn this is a life and the taking of a life is murder. Murder is wrong. Period.