

HB 1373

Written testimony

Patti Armstrong

Bismarck

Life begins at conception. The awesome power of creation is beyond our understanding, and beyond even the smartest minds to replicate and worthy of protection. To do otherwise has ramifications in the here and now and into eternity. Protecting human life from the moment of conception is an obligation, not a choice.